Constitution of the Republic of Seychelles

Chapter 42

Commenced on 21 June 1993

[This is the version of this document as it was at 1 June 2020 to 19 June 2022.]

[SI. 38 of 1993; Act 7 of 1994; Act 5 of 1995; Act 19 of 1995; Act 14 of 1996; SI. 63 of 1996; SI. 6 of 1998; Act 7 of 2000; SI. 31 of 2000; Act 7 of 2011; SI. 29 of 2016; Act 4 of 2016; Act 5 of 2017; Act 8 of 2018; SI 18 of 2020]

We, the People of Seychelles,

GRATEFUL to Almighty God that we inhabit one of the most beautiful countries in the world;

EVER MINDFUL of the uniqueness and fragility of Seychelles;

CONSCIOUS of our colonial history before becoming an Independent Republic;

AWARE and PROUD that as descendants of different races we have learnt to live together as one Nation under God and can serve as an example for a harmonious multi-racial society;

HAVING attained national stability and political maturity despite the pressures of a sadly divided world;

DESIROUS to build a just, fraternal and humane society in a spirit of friendship and co-operation with all peoples of the world;

RECOGNISING the inherent dignity and the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family as the foundation for freedom, justice, welfare, fraternity, peace and unity;

REAFFIRMING that these rights include the rights of the individual to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness free from all types of discrimination;

CONSIDERING that these rights are most effectively maintained and protected in a democratic society where all powers of Government spring from the will of the people

EXERCISING our natural and inalienable right to a framework of Government which shall secure for ourselves and posterity the blessings of truth, liberty, fraternity, equality or opportunity, justice, peace, stability and prosperity;

INVOKING the blessings of Almighty God;

SOLEMNLY DECLARING our unswaying commitment, during this our Third Republic, to

- maintain Seychelles as an independent State both politically and economically;
- safeguard its sovereignty and territorial integrity;
- uphold the rule of law based on the recognition of the fundamental human rights and freedoms enshrined in this Constitution and on respect for the equality and dignity of human beings;
- develop a democratic system which will ensure the creation of an adequate and progressive social order guaranteeing food, clothing, shelter, education, health and a steadily rising standard of living for all Seychellois;
- participate actively in the sustainable economic and social development of our society;
- exercise our individual rights and freedoms with due regard to the rights and freedoms of others and the common interest;
- help preserve a safe, healthy and functioning environment for ourselves and for posterity;

HEREBY adopt and confer upon ourselves this Constitution as the fundamental and supreme law of our Sovereign and Democratic Republic.

Chapter I The Republic

1. Declaration of Authority

Seychelles is a sovereign democratic Republic.

2. National territory

- (1) The territory of Seychelles shall consist of—
 - (a) the islands of the Seychelles Archipelago, as set out in Part 1 of Schedule 1;
 - (b) the territorial waters and historic waters of Seychelles and the seabed and subsoil underlying those waters;
 - (c) the airspace above those islands and those waters; and
 - (d) such additional areas as may be declared by law to be part of the territory of Seychelles.
- (2) Notwithstanding clause (1), a law may proclaim complete or partial jurisdiction of the Republic over any other area of land, water or airspace.
- (3) An Act shall declare the limit of the territorial waters and historic waters of Seychelles and may prescribe the limit of the airspace referred to in clause (1)(c).

3. National symbols

There shall be a Public Seal, a National Flag, a National Anthem, a National Emblem and a National Motto, each of which shall be as prescribed by an Act.

4. National languages

- (1) The national languages of Seychelles shall be Creole, English and French.
- (2) Notwithstanding clause (1), a person may use any of the national languages for any purpose but a law may provide for the use of any one or more of the national languages for any specific purpose.

5. Constitution is supreme law

This Constitution is the supreme law of Seychelles and any other law found to be inconsistent with this Constitution is, to the extent of the inconsistency, void.

6. Principles of interpretation

Schedule 2 shall apply for and with respect to the interpretation of this Constitution.

Chapter II Citizenship

7. Persons continuing to be citizen

A person who, immediately before the coming into force of this Constitution, was a citizen of Seychelles by birth, descent, naturalisation or registration shall, on and after that date, continue by virtue of this article to be a citizen of Seychelles by birth, descent, naturalisation or registration, as the case may be.

8. Persons born in Seychelles

Subject to article 9, a person born in Seychelles on or after the coming into force of this Constitution, shall become a citizen of Seychelles at the date of birth.

9. Limitation on operation of article 8

- (1) A person shall not become a citizen of Seychelles by virtue of article 8 if, at the date of birth, neither of the person's parents is a citizen of Seychelles.
- (2) A person shall not become a citizen of Seychelles by virtue of article 8 if, at the date of birth,—
 - (a) either of the person's parents possesses such immunity from suit and legal process as is accorded to an envoy of a foreign sovereign power accredited to Seychelles; or
 - (b) either of the person's parents is a citizen of a country with which Seychelles is at war and the birth occurs in a place then under occupation by that country,and neither of the person's parents is a citizen of Seychelles.

10. Persons born outside Seychelles before Independence Day

- (1) This article shall apply to a person—
 - (a) who would not, but for this article be or become a citizen of Seychelles;
 - (b) who was born outside Seychelles before Independence Day; and
 - (c) any one of whose grand parents or parents was born in Seychelles.
- (2) Subject to any Act, a person to whom this article applies shall be eligible to become a citizen of Seychelles by naturalisation or registration.

10A. Persons born outside Seychelles after Independence Day but before 5th June 1979

A person born outside Seychelles on or after the Independence Day but before the 5th June, 1979 whose mother was a Seychellois at the time of the person's birth is eligible to become a citizen of Seychelles by naturalisation or registration.

11. Persons born outside Seychelles after this Constitution

A person born outside Seychelles on or after the coming into force of this Constitution shall become a citizen of Seychelles at the date of birth if at that date the person's father or mother is a citizen of Seychelles.

12. Marriage to citizen of Seychelles

- (1) A person who, on or after the coming into force of this Constitution, marries another person who is or becomes a citizen of Seychelles shall, subject to any Act, be eligible to become a citizen of Seychelles by naturalisation.
- (2) Clause (1) shall apply to a person who is not a citizen of Seychelles or eligible to become a citizen of Seychelles under article 10 and who, on or after Independence Day, and before the coming into force of this Constitution, married another person who was or became, or who becomes, a citizen of Seychelles, as it applies to a person such as is referred to in clause (1).

13. Acquisition of citizenship, etc

- (1) Provision may be made by or under an Act—
 - (a) for the acquisition of citizenship of Seychelles by any person who is not eligible or who is no longer eligible to become a citizen of Seychelles under this Chapter;
 - (b) for depriving any person of citizenship of Seychelles, it was unlawfully acquired;
 - (c) for the renunciation of citizenship of Seychelles by any person; and
 - (d) for the maintenance of a register of citizens of Seychelles who are also citizens of other countries.
- (2) A person who is a citizen of Seychelles may concurrently possess the citizenship of another country and a law made for the purposes of clause (1)(a) shall not require, as a condition for the acquisition of citizenship of Seychelles, that a person renounces any other citizenship that the person may possess at the time.

14. Interpretation of Chapter II

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter—
 - (a) a person born on a registered ship or aircraft shall be deemed to have been born at the place where the ship or aircraft was registered; and
 - (b) a person born on an unregistered ship or aircraft belonging to the government of a country shall be deemed to have been born in that country.
- (2) Any reference in this Chapter to the national status of the father or mother of a person at the time of the birth of that person shall, in relation to a person born after the death of the father or mother, be construed as a reference to the national status of the father or mother at the time of the father's or mother's death; and accordingly, where that death occurred before the coming into force of this Constitution, the national status that the father or mother would have had if he or she had died on the coming into force of this Constitution shall be deemed to be his or her national status at the time of his or her death.

Chapter III

Part I – Seychellois Charter of fundamental human rights and freedoms

15. Right to life

- (1) Everyone has a right to life and no one shall be deprived of life intentionally.
- (2) A law shall not provide for a sentence of death to be imposed by any court.

- (3) Clause (1) is not infringed if there is a loss of life—
 - (a) by any act or omission which is made not punishable by any law reasonably justifiable in a democratic society; or
 - (b) as a result of a lawful act of war.

16. Right to dignity

Every person has a right to be treated with dignity worthy of a human being and not to be subjected to torture, cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

17. Freedom from slavery and forced or compulsory labour

- (1) Every person has a right not to be held in slavery or bondage.
- (2) Every person has a right not to be compelled to perform forced or compulsory labour.
- (3) Labour forced or compelled to be performed pursuant to a law necessary in a democratic society does not infringe clause (2).

18. Right to liberty

- (1) Every person has a right to liberty and security of the person.
- (2) The restriction, in accordance with fair procedures established by law, of the right under clause (1) in the following cases shall not be treated as an infringement of clause (1)—
 - (a) the arrest or detention in execution of a sentence or other lawful order of a court;
 - (b) the arrest or detention on reasonable suspicion of having committed or of being about to commit an offence for the purposes of investigation or preventing the commission of the offence and of producing, if necessary, the offender before a competent court;
 - (c) the arrest or detention to prevent the spread of infectious or contagious diseases which constitute a serious threat to public health;
 - (d) the arrest or detention for the treatment and rehabilitation of a person who is, or reasonably suspected to be, of unsound mind or addicted to drugs to prevent harm to that person or to the community;
 - (e) the arrest or detention for the purpose of preventing the unauthorised entry into Seychelles of a person, not being a citizen of Seychelles, or for the purpose of deportation or extradition of that person;
 - (f) the detention for the rehabilitation and welfare of a minor with the consent of the parent or guardian or of the Attorney-General where such detention is ordered by a competent court.
- (3) A person who is arrested or detained has a right to be informed at the time of the arrest or detention or as soon as is reasonably practicable thereafter in, as far as is practicable, a language that the person understands of the reason for the arrest or detention, a right to remain silent, a right to be defended by a legal practitioner of the person's choice and, in the case of a minor, a right to communicate with the parent or guardian.
- (4) A person who is arrested or detained shall be informed at the time of the arrest or detention or as soon as is reasonably practicable thereafter of the rights under clause (3).
- (5) A person who is arrested or detained, if not released, shall be produced before a court within twenty-four hours of the arrest or detention or, having regard to the distance from the place of arrest or detention to the nearest court or the non-availability of a judge or magistrate, or force majeure, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the arrest or detention.

- (6) A person charged with an offence has a right to be tried within a reasonable time.
- (7) A person who is produced before a court shall be released, either unconditionally or upon reasonable conditions, for appearance at a later date for trial or for proceedings preliminary to a trial except where the court, having regard to the following circumstances, determines otherwise—
 - (a) where the court is a magistrates' court, the offence is one of treason or murder;
 - (b) the seriousness of the offence;
 - (c) there are substantial grounds for believing that the suspect will fail to appear for the trial or will interfere with the witnesses or will otherwise obstruct the course of justice or will commit an offence while on release;
 - (d) there is a necessity to keep the suspect in custody for the suspect's protection or where the suspect is a minor, for the minor's own welfare;
 - (e) the suspect is serving a custodial sentence;
 - (f) the suspect has been arrested pursuant to a previous breach of the conditions of release for the same offence.
- (8) A person who is detained has the right to take proceedings before the Supreme Court in order that the Court may decide on the lawfulness of the detention and order the release of the person if the detention is not lawful.
- (9) Proceedings under clause (8) shall be dealt with as a matter of urgency by the Supreme Court and shall take priority over the proceedings of the Court listed for hearing on that day.
- (10) A person who has been unlawfully arrested or detained has a right to receive compensation from the person who unlawfully arrested or detained that person or from any other person or authority, including the State, on whose behalf or in the course of whose employment the unlawful arrest or detention was made or from both of them.
- (11) A person who has not been convicted of an offence, if kept or confined in a prison or place of detention, shall not be treated as a convicted person and shall be kept away from any convicted person.
- (12) An offender or a suspect who is a minor and who is kept in lawful custody or detention shall be kept separately from any adult offender or suspect.
- (13) A female offender or suspect who is kept in lawful custody or detention shall be kept separately from any male offender or suspect.
- (14) Where a person is convicted of any offence, any period which the person has spent in custody in respect of the offence shall be taken into account by the court in imposing any sentence of imprisonment for the offence.
- (15) A person shall not be imprisoned merely on the ground of the inability to fulfil a contractual obligation.
- (16) Clause (15) shall not limit the powers of a court under any law in enforcing its orders.

19. Right to a fair and public hearing

- (1) Every person charged with an offence has the right, unless the charge is withdrawn, to a fair hearing within a reasonable time by an independent and impartial court established by law.
- (2) Every person who is charged with an offence—
 - (a) is innocent until the person is proved or has pleaded guilty;

- (b) shall be informed at the time the person is charged or as soon as is reasonably practicable, in, as far as is practicable, a language that the person understands and in detail, of the nature of the offence;
 - (c) shall be given adequate time and facilities to prepare a defence to the charge;
 - (d) has a right to be defended before the court in person, or, at the person's own expense by a legal practitioner of the person's own choice, or, where a law so provides, by a legal practitioner provided at public expense;
 - (e) has a right to examine, in person or by a legal practitioner, the witnesses called by the prosecution before any court, and to obtain the attendance and carry out the examination of witnesses to testify on the person's behalf before the court on the same conditions as those applying to witnesses called by the prosecution;
 - (f) shall, as far as is practicable, have without payment the assistance of an interpreter if the person cannot understand the language used at the trial of the charge;
 - (g) shall not be compelled to testify at the trial or confess guilt;
 - (h) shall not have any adverse inference drawn from the exercise of the right to silence either during the course of the investigation or at the trial; and
 - (i) shall, except with the person's own consent, not be tried in the person's absence unless the person's conduct renders the continuance of the proceedings in the person's presence impracticable and the court has ordered the person to be removed and the trial to proceed in the person's absence.
- (3) When a person is tried for any offence that person or any other person authorised by that person in that behalf shall, if either of them so requires and subject to payment of such reasonable fee as may be specified by or under any law, be given as soon as is practicable after judgment a copy for the use of that person of any record of the proceedings made by or on behalf of the court.
- (4) Except for the offence of genocide or an offence against humanity, a person shall not be held to be guilty of an offence on account of any act or omission that did not, at the time it took place, constitute an offence, and a penalty shall not be imposed for any offence that is more severe in degree or description than the maximum penalty that might have been imposed for the offence at the time when it was committed.
- (5) A person who shows that the person has been tried by a competent court for an offence and either convicted or acquitted shall not be tried again for that offence or for any other offence of which the person could have been convicted at the trial for that offence, save upon the order of a superior court in the course of appeal or review proceedings relating to the conviction or acquittal.
- (6) A person shall not be tried for an offence if the person shows that the person has been pardoned for that offence in accordance with an Act made pursuant to article 60(2).
- (7) Any court or other authority required or empowered by law to determine the existence or extent of any civil right or obligation shall be established by law and shall be independent and impartial, and where proceedings for such a determination are instituted by any person before such a court or other authority the case shall be given a fair hearing within a reasonable time.
- (8) Subject to clause (9), all proceedings of every court and proceedings for the determination of the existence or extent of any civil right or obligation before any court or other authority, including the announcement of the decision of the court or other authority, shall be held in public.
- (9) Anything in clause (8) shall not prevent the court or other authority from excluding from the proceedings, except for the announcement of the decision of the court or other authority, persons other than the parties thereto, their legal representatives and legal practitioners to such extent as the court or other authority—

- (a) may by law be empowered so to do and may consider necessary in the circumstances where publicity would prejudice the interests of justice, or in interlocutory proceedings, or in the interests of public morality, the welfare of persons under the age of eighteen years or the protection of the privacy of persons concerned in the proceedings; or
 - (b) may by law be empowered or required to do so in the interests of defence, public safety or public order.
- (10) Anything contained in or done under the authority of any law necessary in a democratic society shall not be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of—
- (a) clause (1), (2)(e) or (8), to the extent that the law in question makes necessary provision relating to the grounds of privilege or public policy on which evidence shall not be disclosed or witnesses are not competent or cannot be compelled to give evidence in any proceedings;
 - (b) clause (2)(a), to the extent that the law in question imposes upon any person charged with an offence the burden of proving particular facts or declares that the proof of certain facts shall be prima facie proof of the offence or of any element thereof;
 - (c) clause (2)(e), to the extent that the law in question imposes conditions that must be satisfied if witnesses called to testify on behalf of an accused person are to be paid their expenses out of public funds;
 - (d) clause (5), to the extent that the law in question authorises a court to try a member of a disciplinary force for an offence notwithstanding any trial and conviction or acquittal of that member under the disciplinary law of that force, so, however, that any court so trying such a member and convicting the member shall in sentencing the person to any punishment take into account any punishment awarded the member under that disciplinary law.
- (11) Every person convicted of an offence shall be entitled to appeal in accordance with law against the conviction, sentence and any order made on the conviction.
- (12) For the purposes of clause 2(i), a person who has, in accordance with law, been served with a summons or other process requiring the person to appear at the time and place appointed for the trial and who does not so appear shall be deemed to have consented to the trial taking place in the person's absence.
- (13) Every person convicted of an offence and who has suffered punishment as a result of the conviction shall, if it is subsequently shown that there has been a serious miscarriage of justice, be entitled to be compensated by the State according to law.

20. Right to privacy

- (1) Every person has a right not to be subjected—
- (a) without the consent of that person, to the search of the person or property or premises of that person or to the unlawful entry by others on the premises of that person;
 - (b) without the consent of the person or an order of the Supreme Court, to the interception of the correspondence or other means of communication of that person either written, oral or through any medium.
- (2) Anything contained in or done under the authority of any law shall not be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of clause (1)(a) to the extent that the law in question makes provision—
- (a) that is reasonably required in the interest of defence, public safety, public order, public morality, public health, the administration of Government, town and country planning, nature conservation and the economic development and well-being of the country;

- (b) that is reasonably required for the purpose of protecting the rights or freedoms of other persons;
- (c) that authorises an officer or agent of the Government or a local authority, or a body corporate established by law for public purposes, to enter on the premises of any person in order to inspect or value those premises or anything therein for the purpose of any tax, rate, due or duty or in order to carry out work connected with any property that is lawfully on those premises and that belongs to the Government or that authority or body corporate, as the case may be; or
- (d) that authorises, for the purpose of enforcing of the judgment or order of a court in any civil proceedings, the search of any person or property by order of a court or the entry upon any premises by such order.

except so far as that provision or, as the case may be, the thing done under the authority thereof is shown not to be necessary in a democratic society.

21. Freedom of conscience

- (1) Every person has a right to freedom of conscience and for the purpose of this article this right includes freedom of thought and religion, freedom to change religion or belief and freedom either alone or in community with others and both in public and in private, to manifest and propagate the religion or belief in worship, teaching, practice and observance.
- (2) The freedom to manifest and propagate a religion or belief may be subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by a law and necessary in a democratic society—
 - (a) in the interests of defence, public safety, public order, public morality or public health; or
 - (b) for the purpose of protecting the rights or freedoms of other persons.
- (3) A person attending any place of education shall not be compelled to impart or receive religious instruction or to take part in or attend any religious ceremony or observance.
- (4) Subject to this Constitution or any other law, a person shall not be compelled to take any oath that is contrary to the religion or belief of that person or to take any oath in a manner that is contrary to that religion or belief.
- (5) A person shall not be required to profess any religion as a qualification for public office.
- (6) A law shall not make provision for the establishment of any religion or the imposition of any religious observance.
- (7) Anything in this article shall not preclude any religious community or denomination from providing religious instruction for persons of that community or denomination in the course of any education provided by that community or denomination.

22. Freedom of expression

- (1) Every person has a right to freedom of expression and for the purpose of this article this right includes the freedom to hold opinions and to seek, receive and impart ideas and information without interference.
- (2) The right under clause (1) may be subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed by a law and necessary in a democratic society—
 - (a) in the interest of defence, public safety, public order, public morality or public health;
 - (b) for protecting the reputation, rights and freedoms or private lives of persons;
 - (c) for preventing the disclosure of information received in confidence;

- (d) for maintaining the authority and independence of the courts or the National Assembly;
- (e) for regulating the technical administration, technical operation, or general efficiency of telephones, telegraphy, posts, wireless broadcasting, television, or other means of communication or regulating public exhibitions or public entertainment; or
- (f) for the imposition of restrictions upon public officers.

23. Right of assembly and association

- (1) Every person has a right to freedom of peaceful assembly and association and for the purpose of this article this right includes the right to assemble freely and associate with other persons and in particular to form or to belong to political parties, trade unions or other associations for the protection of the interests of that person and not to be compelled to belong to any association.
- (2) The right under clause (1) may be subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed by a law and necessary in a democratic society—
 - (a) in the interests of defence, public safety, public order, public morality or public health;
 - (b) in respect of the registration of associations or political parties;
 - (c) for the protection of the rights and freedoms of other persons,
 - (d) for imposition of restrictions—
 - (i) on persons who are not citizens of Seychelles; or
 - (ii) on public officers or members of the disciplinary forces.

24. Right to participate in Government

- (1) Subject to this Constitution, every citizen of Seychelles who has attained the age of eighteen years has a right—
 - (a) to take part in the conduct of public affairs either directly or through freely chosen representatives;
 - (b) to be registered as a voter for the purpose of and to vote by secret ballot at public elections which shall be by universal and equal suffrage;

 - (d) to participate, on general terms of equality, in public service.
- (2) The exercise of the rights under clause (1) may be regulated by a law necessary in a democratic society.

25. Freedom of movement

- (1) Every person lawfully present in Seychelles has a right of freedom of movement and for the purpose of this article this right includes the right to move freely within Seychelles, the right to reside in any part of Seychelles, the right to leave Seychelles and the right not to be expelled from Seychelles.
- (2) Every person who is a citizen of Seychelles has a right to enter Seychelles and, subject to clause (3) (d), not to be expelled from Seychelles.
- (3) The right under clause (1) may be subject to such restrictions as are prescribed by a law necessary in a democratic society—
 - (a) in the interests of defence, public safety, public order, public morality or public health;
 - (b) for protecting the rights and freedoms of other persons;

- (c) for the prevention of a crime or compliance with an order of a court;
 - (d) for extradition of persons from Seychelles; or
 - (e) for lawful removal of persons who are not citizens of Seychelles from Seychelles.
- (4) A law providing for the extradition of persons from Seychelles shall not authorise the extradition to a country in respect of an offence punishable with death in that country unless that country undertakes not to carry into effect a sentence of death in respect of the offence.
- (5) A law providing for the lawful removal from Seychelles of persons lawfully present in Seychelles shall provide for the submission, prior to removal, of the reasons for the removal and for review by a competent authority of the order of removal.

26. Right to property

- (1) Every person has a right to property and for the purpose of this article this right includes the right to acquire, own, peacefully enjoy and dispose of property either individually or in association with others.
- (2) The exercise of the right under clause (1) may be subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law and necessary in a democratic society—
- (a) in the public interest;
 - (b) for the enforcement of an order or judgment of a court in civil or criminal proceedings;
 - (c) in satisfaction of any penalty, tax, rate, duty or due;
 - (d) in the case of property reasonably suspected of being acquired by the proceeds of drug trafficking or serious crime;
 - (e) in respect of animals found trespassing or straying;
 - (f) in consequence of a law with respect to limitation of actions or acquisitive prescription;
 - (g) with respect to property of citizens of a country at war with Seychelles;
 - (h) with regard to the administration of the property of persons adjudged bankrupt or of persons who have died or of persons under legal incapacity; or
 - (i) for vesting in the Republic of the ownership of underground water or unextracted oil or minerals of any kind or description.
- (3) A law shall not provide for the compulsory acquisition or taking of possession of any property by the State unless—
- (a) reasonable notice of the intention to compulsorily acquire or take possession of the property and of the purpose of the intended acquisition or taking of possession are given to persons having an interest or right over the property;
 - (b) the compulsory acquisition or taking of possession is necessary in the public interest for the development or utilisation of the property to promote public welfare or benefit or for public defence, safety, order, morality or health or for town and country planning;
 - (c) there is reasonable justification for causing any hardship that may result to any person who has an interest in or over the property;
 - (d) the State pays prompt and full compensation for the property;
 - (e) any person who has an interest or right over the property has a right of access to the Supreme Court whether direct or on appeal from any other authority for the determination of the interest or right, the legality of the acquisition or taking of possession of the property, the amount of compensation payable to the person and for the purpose of obtaining prompt payment of compensation.

- (4) Where the property acquired by the State under this article is not used, within a reasonable time, for the purpose for which it was acquired, the State shall give, to the person who owned it immediately before the acquisition of the property, an option to buy the property.
- (5) A law imposing any restriction on the acquisition or disposal of property by a person who is not a citizen of Seychelles shall not be held to be inconsistent with clause (1).

27. Right to equal protection of the law

- (1) Every person has a right to equal protection of the law including the enjoyment of the rights and freedoms set out in this Charter without discrimination on any ground except as is necessary in a democratic society.
- (2) Clause (1) shall not preclude any law, programme or activity which has as its object the amelioration of the conditions of disadvantaged persons or groups.

28. Right of access to official information

- (1) The State recognises the right of access of every person to information relating to that person and held by a public authority which is performing a governmental function and the right to have the information rectified or otherwise amended, if inaccurate.
- (2) The right of access to information contained in clause (1) shall be subject to such limitations and procedures as may be prescribed by law and are necessary in a democratic society including—
 - (a) for the protection of national security;
 - (b) for the prevention and detection of crime and the enforcement of law;
 - (c) for the compliance with an order of a court or in accordance with a legal privilege;
 - (d) for the protection of the privacy or rights or freedoms of others;
- (3) The State undertakes to take appropriate measures to ensure that information collected in respect of any person for a particular purpose is used only for that purpose except where a law necessary in a democratic society or an order of a court authorises otherwise.
- (4) The State recognises the right of access by the public to information held by a public authority performing a governmental function subject to limitations contained in clause (2) and any law necessary in a democratic society.

29. Right to health care

- (1) The State recognises the right of every citizen to protection of health and to the enjoyment of the attainable standard of physical and mental health and with a view to ensuring the effective exercise of this right the State undertakes—
 - (a) to take steps to provide for free primary health care in State institutions for all its citizens.
 - (b) to take appropriate measures to prevent, treat and control epidemic, endemic and other diseases;
 - (c) to take steps to reduce infant mortality and promote the healthy development of the child;
 - (d) to promote individual responsibility in health matters;
 - (e) to allow, subject to such supervision and conditions as are necessary in a democratic society, for the establishment of private medical services.

30. Right of working mothers

The State recognises the unique status and natural maternal functions of women in society and undertakes as a result to take appropriate measures to ensure that a working mother is afforded special protection with regard to paid leave and her conditions at work during such reasonable period as provided by law before and after childbirth.

31. Right of minors

The State recognises the right of children and young persons to special protection in view of their immaturity and vulnerability and to ensure effective exercise of this right the State undertakes—

- (a) to provide that the minimum age of admission to employment shall be fifteen years, subject to exceptions for children who are employed part-time in light work prescribed by law without harm to their health, morals or education;
- (b) to provide for a higher minimum age of admission to employment with respect to occupations prescribed by law which the State regards as dangerous, unhealthy or likely to impair the normal development of a child or young person;
- (c) to ensure special protection against social and economic exploitation and physical and moral dangers to which children and young persons are exposed;
- (d) to ensure, save in exceptional and judicially recognised circumstances, that a child of young age is not separated from his parents.

32. Protection of families

- (1) The State recognises that the family is the natural and fundamental element of society and the right of everyone to form a family and undertakes to promote the legal, economic and social protection of the family.
- (2) The right contained in clause (1) may be subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed by law and necessary in a democratic society including the prevention of marriage between persons of the same sex or persons within certain family degrees.

33. Right to Education

The State recognises the right of every citizen to education and with a view to ensuring the effective realisation of this right undertakes—

- (a) to provide compulsory education, which shall be free in State schools, for such minimum period, which shall not be less than ten years, as may be prescribed by law;
- (b) to ensure that the educational programs in all schools are aimed at the complete development of the person;
- (c) to afford, on the basis of intellectual capability, every citizen equal access to educational opportunities and facilities beyond the period of compulsory education;
- (d) to allow, subject to such reasonable restrictions, supervision and conditions as are necessary in a democratic society, any person, organisation or institution to establish and maintain a private school;
- (e) to respect the right of parents to choose whether to send their children to a State or private school.

34. Right to shelter

The State recognises the right of every citizen to adequate and decent shelter conducive to health and well-being and undertakes either directly or through or with the co-operation of public or private organisations to facilitate the effective realisation of this right.

35. Right to work

The State recognises the right of every citizen to work and to just and favourable conditions of work and with a view to ensuring the effective exercise of these rights the State undertakes—

- (a) to take necessary measures to achieve and maintain a high and stable level of employment, as is practicable, with a view to attaining full employment;
- (b) subject to such restrictions as are necessary in a democratic society, to protect effectively the right of a citizen to earn a dignified living in a freely chosen occupation, profession or trade;
- (c) to promote vocational guidance and training;
- (d) to make and enforce statutory provisions for safe, healthy and fair conditions of work, including reasonable rest, leisure, paid holidays, remuneration which guarantees, as a minimum, dignified and decent living conditions for the workers and their families, fair and equal wages for work of equal value without distinction and stability of employment;
- (c) to promote machinery for voluntary negotiations between employers and workers or their organisations with a view to the regulation of conditions of employment by means of collective agreements;

[Please note: numbering as in original.]

- (d) to promote the establishment and use of appropriate machinery for conciliation and voluntary arbitrations for the settlement of labour disputes;
- (e) subject to such restrictions as are necessary in a democratic society, and necessary for safeguarding public order, for the protection of health or morals and the rights and freedoms of others, to ensure the right of workers to organise trade unions and to guarantee the right to strike.

36. Right of the aged and the disabled

The State recognises the right of the aged and the disabled to special protection and with a view to ensuring the effective exercise of this right undertakes—

- (a) to make reasonable provision for improving the quality of life of and for the welfare and maintenance of the aged and disabled;
- (b) to promote programs specifically aimed at achieving the greatest possible development of the disabled.

37. Right to social security

The State recognises the right of every citizen to a decent and dignified existence and with a view to ensuring that its citizens are not left unprovided for by reason of incapacity to work or involuntary unemployment undertakes to maintain a system of social security.

38. Right to safe environment

The State recognises the right of every person to live in and enjoy a clean, healthy and ecologically balanced environment and with a view to ensuring the effective realisation of this right the State undertakes—

- (a) to take measures to promote the protection, preservation and improvement of the environment
- (b) to ensure a sustainable socio-economic development of Seychelles by a judicious use and management of the resources of Seychelles;
- (c) to promote public awareness of the need to protect, preserve and improve the environment.

39. Right to cultural life and values

- (1) The State recognises the right of every person to take part in cultural life and to profess, promote, enjoy and protect the cultural and customary values of the Seychellois people subject to such restrictions as may be provided by law and necessary in a democratic society including—
 - (a) the protection of public order, public morals and public health;
 - (b) the prevention of crime;
 - (c) the protection of the rights and freedoms of other persons.
- (2) The State undertakes to take reasonable steps to ensure the preservation of the cultural heritage and values of the Seychellois people.

Part II – Fundamental duties

40. Fundamental duties

It shall be the duty of every citizen of Seychelles—

- (a) to uphold and defend this Constitution and the law;
- (b) to further the national interest and to foster national unity;
- (c) to work conscientiously in a chosen profession, occupation or trade;
- (d) to contribute towards the well-being of the community;
- (e) to protect, preserve and improve the environment; and
- (f) generally, to strive towards the fulfilment of the aspirations contained in the Preamble of this Constitution.

Part III – State of emergency and savings

41. Declaration of state of emergency

- (1) The President may, where the President has reason to believe that—
 - (a) a grave threat to national security or public order has arisen or is imminent; or
 - (b) a grave civil emergency has arisen or is imminent, in Seychelles or in any part of Seychelles, by a Proclamation published in the Gazette, declare that a state of emergency exists in Seychelles or that part of Seychelles, as the case may be.

- (2) A declaration made under clause (1) shall cease to have effect on the expiration of a period of seven days beginning with the date of the publication of the declaration unless, before the expiration of the period, it is approved by a resolution passed by not less than two-thirds of the number of members of the National Assembly.
- (3) The President shall, within seventy-two hours after the publication of the Proclamation under clause (1), send to the Speaker of the National Assembly the facts and circumstances leading to the declaration of the state of emergency and the Speaker shall, within seven days after the publication, cause the declaration and the facts and circumstances leading to the declaration to be considered by the Assembly.
- (4) Subject to clause (5), a declaration of emergency approved by the National Assembly under clause (2) shall continue in force until the expiration of a period of three months beginning with the date of its approval or until such earlier date as may be specified in the resolution.
- (5) The National Assembly may, by a resolution passed by the votes of a majority of members of the National Assembly, at any time, revoke a declaration approved by the National Assembly under this article.
- (6) Whenever an election to the office of President results in a change in the holder of that office a declaration under this article which is in force immediately before the day on which the President assumes office shall cease to have effect on the expiration of seven days beginning with that day.
- (7) Notwithstanding clause (1), where the National Assembly resolves under clause (2) that the declaration of a state of emergency should not continue or revokes a declaration of state of emergency under clause (5), the President shall not, within thirty days of the resolution or revocation, declare a state of emergency based wholly or mainly on the same facts unless the National Assembly has, by a resolution passed by the votes of a majority of its members, authorised the making of the declaration.
- (8) Where due to circumstances prevailing at the time of a declaration of a state of emergency under clause (1) it is impracticable to publish in the Gazette the Proclamation under that clause, the Proclamation may be published in such manner as the President may determine so as to give it as much publicity as is possible and such publication shall be deemed to be a sufficient compliance with clause (1) for the purposes of this article.
- (9) Clauses (2) to (6) and (8) shall apply in respect of a declaration of emergency made under clause (7).

42. Provisions where National Assembly is not sitting or in session

- (1) Where the National Assembly is in session but not sitting when a declaration is made under article 41(1) or (7), the Speaker shall immediately summon the Assembly to meet on a date that is not more than seven days after the publication of the declaration.
- (2) Where the National Assembly stands dissolved when a declaration is made under article 41(1) or (7), the President shall, in the Proclamation making the declaration, summon the members of the dissolved Assembly to meet on a date that is not more than seven days after the making of the declaration and the members may, until a new National Assembly first meets, meet and continue to meet for the purpose of discharging the functions of the National Assembly for the purposes of article 41.
- (3) For the purposes of clause (2), the Speaker or Deputy Speaker immediately before the dissolution of the National Assembly shall preside over the sittings of the National Assembly.

43. Restrictions of rights and freedoms during a period of public emergency

- (1) This article shall apply during any period of public emergency.

- (2) Notwithstanding this Chapter but subject to clause (3), a law may provide for the taking during a period of public emergency of such measures as are strictly required to meet the exigencies of the situation.
- (3) A law referred to in clause (2) shall not provide for the taking of measures that are inconsistent with articles 15, 16, 17, 18(3), 19(2) to (6) and (11), 21 and 27.
- (4) Where a law referred to in clause (2) provides for the detention of persons provision shall be made in the law—
 - (a) that, as soon as is reasonably practicable and in any case not more than seven days after the commencement of the detention, the person detained shall be furnished with a statement in writing, in, as far as is practicable, a language that the person understands, specifying in detail the grounds upon which the person is detained;
 - (b) that not more than seven days after the commencement of the detention, a notice shall be published in the Gazette and a local daily newspaper of wide circulation in Seychelles stating the name of the person detained and the particulars of the law under which the detention was made;
 - (c) that not more than a month after the detention and thereafter at intervals of not more than three months the detention of the person shall be reviewed by an independent and impartial tribunal appointed by the President from candidates proposed by the Constitutional Appointments Authority for this purpose;
 - (d) that the person detained shall be entitled to choose and be afforded reasonable facilities to consult a legal practitioner, to appear, in person or through the legal practitioner, before the tribunal, and that where the law so provides the services of the legal practitioner shall be at public expense;
 - (e) that the person detained shall be released forthwith if the tribunal reviewing the detention is satisfied that it is not reasonably necessary or expedient for the purpose of the emergency to continue with the detention;
 - (f) where the tribunal reviewing the detention of a person does not order the release of the person the tribunal may make recommendation to the authority detaining the person concerning the necessity or expediency of continuing with the detention and a copy of the recommendation shall be served on the person detained.
- (5) A tribunal appointed under clause (4)(c) shall have a Judge as chairman.

44. Savings in relation to disciplinary force

- (1) A law made in relation to a disciplinary force of Seychelles may, in so far as it is necessary in a democratic society, provide for the derogation against the provisions of the Charter, other than articles 15, 16, and 17.
- (2) A law of a country other than Seychelles whose disciplinary force is lawfully in Seychelles in pursuance of arrangements made between the Government of Seychelles and another government or an international organisation shall, in so far as the law applies to that disciplinary force, not be held to be inconsistent or in contravention of the provisions of the Charter.
- (3) A law which authorises the taking of any measure against a member of a disciplinary force of a country with which Seychelles is at war shall not be held to be inconsistent with the Charter.
- (4) A law referred to in clause (3) shall not provide for the doing of anything which constitutes the crime of genocide or a crime against humanity.

Part IV – Remedies

45. Abuse of right or freedom

This Chapter shall not be interpreted so as to confer on any person or group the right to engage in any activity aimed at the suppression of a right or freedom contained in the Charter.

46. Remedies for infringement of the Charter

- (1) A person who claims that a provision of this Charter has been or is likely to be contravened in relation to the person by any law, act or omission may, subject to this article, apply to the Constitutional Court for redress.
- (2) An application under clause (1) may, where the Constitutional Court is satisfied that the person whose right or freedom has been or is likely to be contravened is unable to do so, be made by another person acting on behalf of that person, with or without that person's authority.
- (3) The Constitutional Court may decline to entertain an application under clause (1) where the Court is satisfied that the applicant has obtained redress for the contravention under any law and where the applicant has obtained redress in the Constitutional Court for any matter for which an application may be made under clause (1), a court shall not entertain any application for redress for such matter except on appeal from a decision of such court.
- (4) Where the Constitutional Court on an application under clause(1) is satisfied that adequate means of redress for the contravention alleged are or have been available to the person concerned in any other court under any other law, the Court may hear the application or transfer the application to the appropriate court for grant of redress in accordance with law.
- (5) Upon hearing of an application under clause (1) the Constitutional Court may—
 - (a) declare any act or omission which is the subject of the application to be a contravention of the Charter;
 - (b) declare any law or the provision of any law which contravenes the Charter void;
 - (c) make such declaration or order, issue such writ and give such directions as it may consider appropriate for the purpose of enforcing or securing the enforcement of the Charter and disposing of all the issues relating to the application;
 - (d) award any damages for the purpose of compensating the person concerned for any damages suffered;
 - (e) make such additional order under this Constitution or as may be prescribed by law.
- (6) Where the Constitutional Court makes a declaration under clause (5)(b) the Court shall, subject to any decision in appeal therefrom, send a copy of the declaration to the President and the Speaker.
- (7) Where in the course of any proceedings in any court, other than the Constitutional Court or the Court of Appeal, a question arises with regard to whether there has been or is likely to be a contravention of the Charter, the court shall, if it is satisfied that the question is not frivolous or vexatious or has already been the subject of a decision of the Constitutional Court or the Court of Appeal, immediately adjourn the proceedings and refer the question for determination by the Constitutional Court.
- (8) Where in an application under clause (1) or where a matter is referred to the Constitutional Court under clause (7), the person alleging the contravention or risk of contravention establishes a prima facie case, the burden of proving that there has not been a contravention or risk of contravention shall, where the allegation is against the State, be on the State.

- (9) The court in which the question referred to in clause (7) arose shall dispose of the case in accordance with the decision of the Constitutional Court, or if that decision is the subject of an appeal to the Court of Appeal, in accordance with the decision of the Court of Appeal.
- (10) The Chief Justice may make rules for the purpose of this article with respect to the practice and procedure of the Constitutional Court in relation to the jurisdiction and power conferred upon it by or under this article, including rules with respect to the time within which an application or a reference may be made or brought.

Part V – Principles of interpretation

47. Scope of exceptions

Where a right or freedom contained in this Charter is subject to any limitation, restriction or qualification, that limitation, restriction or qualification—

- (a) shall have no wider effect than is strictly necessary in the circumstances; and
- (b) shall not be applied for any purpose other than that for which it has been prescribed.

48. Consistency with international obligations of Seychelles

This Chapter shall be interpreted in such a way so as not to be inconsistent with any international obligations of Seychelles relating to human rights and freedoms and a court shall, when interpreting the provision of this Chapter, take judicial notice of—

- (a) the international instrument containing these obligations;
- (b) the reports and expression of views of bodies administering or enforcing these instruments;
- (c) the reports, decisions or opinions of international and regional institutions administering or enforcing Conventions on human rights and freedoms;

Chapter IV The President

50. President of Seychelles

There shall be a President of Seychelles who shall be the Head of State, Head of Government and Commander-in-Chief of the Defence Forces of Seychelles.

51. Qualification for election as President and election

- (1) A person is qualified for election as President if—
 - (a) the person is a citizen of Seychelles;
 - (b) the person is not disqualified from registration as a voter under this Constitution.
- (2) Subject to clause (6), Schedule 3 shall have effect with regard to the election of the President.
- (3) The Constitutional Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine whether a person has been validly elected to the office of President.
- (4) An application under clause (3) may be made by a person entitled to vote at an election of the President, a person who was a candidate at the election or the Attorney-General.
- (5) Where a person other than the Attorney-General makes an application under this article, the Attorney-General may intervene and may appear or be represented in the proceedings.
- (6) A law may provide for—
 - (a) the circumstances and manner in which and the imposition of conditions upon which an application may be made to the Constitutional Court for the determination of a question under clause (3);
 - (b) the powers, practice and procedure of the Constitutional Court in relation to the application; and
 - (c) any matter, not otherwise provided for in Schedule 3, which is necessary or required to ensure a true, fair and effective election of the President.

52. Tenure of office of President

- (1) Subject to this article, a person elected as President shall hold office for a term of five years—
 - (a) beginning with the date next following the date of the declaration of the election of President; or
 - (b) where another person holds office as President on the date next following the date of the declaration of the election of President, beginning on the date next following the date on which the office next becomes vacant.
- (2) A person shall hold office as President under this Constitution for not more than two terms.
[Article 52(2) amended by section 2(a) of Act 4 of 2016 w.e.f. 16 October 2016]
- (3) The office of President becomes vacant—
 - (a) on the expiration of the period specified in clause (1);
 - (b) where an election for the office of President is held before the expiration of five years referred to in clause (1), on the date next following the date of declaration of the election of President; or
 - (c) where the incumbent dies or resigns or is removed from office under this Constitution.
- (4) Where, but for this clause, the office of President would become vacant on a particular date by reason of the operation of clause (3)(a), but on that date an election held under article 51 has not resulted in the election of the President, the incumbent President shall continue to hold office until the end of the day on which the President is elected under article 51.
- (5) The President may, by writing addressed to the Speaker, resign from the office of President.
- (6) Where a period of public emergency subsists at the time when the term of office of President would end, the National Assembly may, by resolution approved by a majority of the members of the Assembly, extend the term of office of President—
 - (a) where there is a declaration of a state of emergency, for not more than six months at a time but up to a maximum aggregate period of twelve months;
 - (b) where Seychelles is at war, for not more than twelve months at a time but up to a maximum aggregate period of forty-eight months,and a period of extension shall not extend beyond the duration of the current session of the National Assembly or beyond the period by which the session of the National Assembly is extended in the same circumstances under this Constitution.

52A. Appealing for fresh mandate

- (1) The provisions of this article shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the other provisions of this Chapter.
- (2) The President may, at any time after the expiration of one year from the commencement of the President's first term of office, by Proclamation published in the Gazette, declare the President's intention of appealing to the People for a mandate to hold office, by election, for a further term.
[Article 52A(2) amended by section 2(b) of Act 4 of 2016 w.e.f. 16 October 2016]
- (3) Upon the making of a Proclamation under clause (2), the Electoral Commission shall, subject to the provisions of this article, hold a Presidential election.
[Article 52A(3) amended by section 2(a) of Act 7 of 2011 w.e.f. 12 July 2011]

- (4) (a) The President may revoke a Proclamation made under this article by notice published in the Gazette, at any time before the date appointed as nomination day in relation to the election of the President.
- (b) The President shall not withdraw the President's nomination as candidate at such election.
- (5) If at any time after the date of a Proclamation made under clause (2) and before the close of the poll at the election held in pursuance of the Proclamation, the incumbent President dies, the Proclamation shall be deemed to have been revoked with effect from the date of such death, and the election to be held in pursuance of the Proclamation shall be deemed to be cancelled.
- (6) The person declared elected as President at an election held under this article shall, if such person—
 - (a) is the incumbent President, hold office for a further term of five years beginning with the date next following the date on which the term of office of the incumbent President is deemed to have expired under clause (7);
 - (b) is a person other than the incumbent President, hold office for a term of five years beginning with the date next following the date of declaration of the election of President.
- (7) Where an election is held under this article the term of office of the incumbent President—

[Article 52A inserted by section 3(a) of Act 7 of 2000 w.e.f. 7 June 2000]

53. Removal of the President for incapacity

- (1) This article shall have effect with regard to the removal of the President from office on the ground of mental or physical incapacity.
- (2) Where the Cabinet resolves, upon a motion supported by the votes of a majority of all the members of the Cabinet, that the question of the mental or physical capacity of the President to discharge the functions of the office of President ought to be investigated, the Cabinet shall so inform the Chief Justice.
- (3) Where notice in writing signed by not less than half the number of members of the National Assembly of a motion requesting that the question of the mental or physical capacity of the President to discharge the functions of the office of President ought to be investigated is given to the Speaker, the Speaker shall—
 - (a) where the National Assembly is sitting or has been summoned to meet within five days, cause the motion to be considered by the Assembly as soon as is practicable within seven days of the notice;
 - (b) where the National Assembly is not then sitting, summon the Assembly to meet on a date within fourteen days of the notice and cause the motion to be considered at that meeting.
- (4) Where a motion under clause (3) is proposed for consideration by the National Assembly, the Assembly shall not debate the motion but the Speaker shall forthwith cause a vote to be taken on the motion and, if the motion is supported by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of its members, shall declare the motion to be passed and shall deliver a copy of the motion to the President and the Chief Justice.
- (5) Where the Chief Justice is informed under clause (2) or receives a copy of a motion under clause (4), the Chief Justice shall appoint a medical board consisting of not less than three persons selected by the Chief Justice from among persons who are qualified as medical practitioners under a law, and the medical board shall inquire into the matter and shall make a report to the Chief Justice stating the opinion of the board as to whether or not the President is, by reason of any infirmity of body or mind, incapable of discharging the functions of the office of President.

- (6) Where under clause (5) the medical board reports that the President is capable of discharging the functions of the office of President, the Chief Justice shall inform accordingly—
- (a) where the investigation was carried out at the instance of the Cabinet, the Cabinet; or
 - (b) where the investigation was carried out at the instance of the National Assembly, the Speaker,
- and, as soon as is practicable, thereafter the Cabinet shall inform the President accordingly or the Speaker shall inform the President and the National Assembly accordingly, as the case may be.
- (7) Where under clause (5) the medical board reports that the President is incapable of discharging the functions of the office of President, the Chief Justice shall certify in writing accordingly and—
- (a) where the investigation was carried out at the instance of the Cabinet, submit the findings to the Cabinet, and the Cabinet shall inform the President of the findings and submit the findings to the Speaker; or
 - (b) where the investigation was carried out at the instance of the National Assembly, submit the findings to the Speaker and the Speaker shall inform the President of the findings.
- (8) Where the Speaker receives a report under clause (7), the Speaker shall,—
- (a) where the National Assembly is sitting or has been summoned to meet within five days, cause the findings of the medical board to be considered by the Assembly as soon as is practicable; or
 - (b) where the National Assembly is not sitting, immediately summon the Assembly to meet and cause the findings of the medical board to be considered at that meeting.
- (9) Where the National Assembly, when it meets pursuant to clause (8), resolves by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of its members that the finding of the medical board be adopted, the President shall cease to hold office on the passing of the resolution.

54. Removal of President for violation of Constitution or gross misconduct

- (1) Where notice in writing signed by not less than half the number of the members of the National Assembly of a motion alleging that the President has committed a violation of this Constitution or a gross misconduct and specifying the particulars of the allegation and proposing that the Constitutional Court investigate the allegations is given to the Speaker, the Speaker shall—
- (a) if the National Assembly is then sitting or has been summoned to meet within five days, cause the motion to be considered by the Assembly within seven days of the notice; or
 - (b) if the National Assembly is not sitting, summon the Assembly to meet on a date within fourteen days of the notice and cause the motion to be considered at that meeting.
- (2) Where a motion under clause (1) is proposed for consideration by the National Assembly, the Assembly shall not debate the motion but the Speaker shall forthwith cause a vote to be taken on the motion and, if the motion is supported by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of its members, shall declare the motion to be passed.
- (3) Where a motion is declared to be passed under clause (2)—
- (a) the Speaker shall deliver a copy of the motion to the President and the Chief Justice;
 - (b) the Chief Justice shall place the matter before the Constitutional Court;
 - (c) the Constitutional Court shall investigate the matter and report to the Speaker whether it finds that the particulars of the allegation specified in the motion constitute a prima facie case for the removal of the President; and

- (d) the Constitutional Court in investigating the matter under paragraph (c) may summon and examine any witnesses or otherwise exercise all the powers of the Supreme Court.
- (4) The President shall have the right to appear and be represented before the Constitutional Court during its investigation of the allegation.
- (5) Where the Constitutional Court reports to the Speaker that the Court finds that the particulars of an allegation against the President specified in the motion do not constitute a prima facie case for the removal of the President, no further proceedings shall be taken under this article in respect of that allegation.
- (6) Where the Constitutional Court reports to the Speaker that the Court finds that the particulars of an allegation against the President specified in the motion constitute a prima facie case for the removal of the President, the Speaker shall, within ten days after a report is made to the Speaker pursuant to clause (3)(c)—
 - (a) where the National Assembly is sitting or has been summoned to meet within five days, cause the findings of the Court to be considered, as soon as is practicable, by the Assembly; or
 - (b) where the National Assembly is not sitting, immediately summon the National Assembly and cause the findings of the Court to be considered by the Assembly.
- (7) Where the National Assembly when it meets pursuant to clause (6) resolves by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of its members that the finding of the Constitutional Court be adopted, the President shall cease to hold office on the passing of the resolution.

55. Vacancy in the office of President

- (1) Where the office of the President becomes vacant by reason of the death or resignation of the President or by reason of the President ceasing to hold office under article 53 or article 54 or article 110(3), the Vice-President shall discharge the functions of the office of President until a person is elected under article 51 to the office of the President.

[Article 55(1) amended by section 3(b) of Act 7 of 2000 w.e.f. 7 June 2000]

[Article 55(1) repealed and replaced by section 2(a)(i) of Act 5 of 2017 w.e.f. 19 April 2017]

- (2) A person who would, but for that person's death, have been declared elected as President at the Presidential election and the person designated as the Vice-President of the first mentioned person shall be deemed to have been the President and Vice-President respectively, holding office immediately before the death of the first-mentioned person and accordingly, such Vice-President shall discharge the functions of the office of President until a person is elected under article 51 to the office of the President.

[Article 55(2) repealed by section 2(a)(ii) of Act 5 of 2017 w.e.f. 19 April 2017]

- (3) Where the Vice-President discharges the functions of the President under clause (1), clause (2), or article 56, the Vice-President shall not have power to—
 - (a) revoke the appointment of a Minister, or
 - (b) invoke article 110.

[Article 55 repealed and substituted by section 3(a) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996; Article 55(3) amended by section 2(a)(iii) of Act 5 of 2017 w.e.f. 19 April 2017]

The Vice-President and the Ministers shall be individually accountable to the President for the administration of their Ministries and departments assigned to them and shall collectively be responsible for a decision of Cabinet.

[Article 71 repealed and substituted by section 3(g) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

72. Term of office of Ministers

A Minister, unless the Minister—

- (a) dies;
- (b) resigns; or

- (c) is removed from office under and in accordance with this Constitution, shall hold office until immediately before the beginning of the term of the person next elected, after the Minister's appointment, to the office of President.

73. Resignation and removal of Ministers

- (1) A Minister may resign from office by delivering to the President a notice of resignation but the resignation shall not have effect until it is received by the President.
- (2) The President may and, where the National Assembly has passed a vote of censure in respect of the Minister under article 74, shall, by instrument in writing, remove a Minister from office.
- (3) The President shall cause to be published in the Gazette notice of the fact of the resignation or removal of a Minister from office.

74. Vote of censure

- (1) The National Assembly may, by resolution approved by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of its members, pass a vote of censure against a Minister.
- (2) A motion for a resolution under clause (1) shall not be moved in the National Assembly unless—
 - (a) seven days' notice has been given of the motion; and
 - (b) the notice for the motion has been signed by not less than one-third of the number of members of the Assembly.
- (3) The Speaker shall, upon receipt of the notice of the motion under clause (2)—
 - (a) send a copy of the notice to the President; and
 - (b) unless the Minister has ceased to hold office beforehand, cause the motion to be debated in the National Assembly within fourteen days after receiving notice of the motion.
- (4) The Minister in respect of whom a vote of censure is to be debated under clause (3) is entitled to be heard during the debate.
- (5) Where a vote of censure is passed against a Minister under this article, the Speaker shall as soon as is practicable thereafter notify the President and the President shall, unless the Minister otherwise ceases to hold office, remove the Minister from office under article 73(2) not later than seven days after being notified by the Speaker.

75. Designated Minister

- (1) At the time of submitting the names to the National Assembly for its approval of the persons to be appointed as Ministers, the President shall designate one person who shall discharge the functions of designated Minister under the Constitution or an Act.

[Article 75(1) repealed and substituted by section 3(h)(i) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

- (2) The approval of the National Assembly under clause (1) or article 66A(10) or (11) shall be by a majority of the members of the Assembly.

[Article 75(2) amended by section 3(h)(ii) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

- (3) Where the National Assembly does not approve the designation of a person under clause (1) or article 66A(10) or (11) or a person whose designation has been approved under that clause ceases to be a Minister, the President shall designate another person for approval by the National Assembly.

[Article 75(3) amended by section 3(h)(iii) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

- (4) Where under the Constitution a function is required to be performed by the President and both the President and the Vice-President are unable to perform the function, the function may be performed by the designated Minister until the President or Vice-President is able to perform the function.

[Article 75(4) repealed and substituted by section 3(h)(iv) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

- (5) Where under the Constitution a function, not being a function related to a Ministry or department assigned to the Vice-President by the President under article 66A(2), is required to be performed by the Vice-President and the Vice-President is unable to perform the function, the function may be performed by the designated Minister until the Vice-President is able to perform the function.

[Article 75(5) inserted by section 3(h)(iv) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

- (6) A restriction or limitation which the Constitution imposes on the President or Vice-President with regard to the exercise of the function of President or Vice-President shall apply to the designated Minister when performing a function under clause (4) or clause (5).

[Article 75(6) inserted by section 3(h)(iv) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

76. Attorney-General

- (1) There shall be an Attorney-General who shall be appointed by the President from candidates proposed by the Constitutional Appointments Authority.
- (2) A person shall hold office as Attorney-General for a term of not more than seven years and is eligible for reappointment at the end of a term of office.
- (3) A person shall not be appointed to the office of Attorney-General unless the person is qualified for appointment to the office of Judge.
- (4) The Attorney-General shall be the principal legal advisor to the Government and, subject to clause (11), shall have power, in any case in which the Attorney-General considers it desirable so to do—
- (a) to institute and undertake criminal proceedings against any person before any court in respect of any offence alleged to have been committed by that person;
 - (b) to take over and continue any such criminal proceedings that have been instituted or undertaken by any other person or authority; and
 - (c) to discontinue at any stage before judgment is delivered any criminal proceedings instituted or undertaken under subclause (a) or by any other person or authority.
- (5) The powers of the Attorney-General under clause (4) may be exercised by the Attorney-General in person or by subordinate officers acting in accordance with the general or special instructions of the Attorney-General.
- (6) Subject to clause (7), the power conferred on the Attorney-General by clause (4)(b) to take over any proceedings or by clause (4)(c) to discontinue any proceedings shall be vested in the Attorney-General to the exclusion of any other person or authority.
- (7) Where a person or authority, other than the Attorney-General, has instituted criminal proceedings, nothing in clause (6) shall prevent the withdrawal of those proceedings by or at the instance of that person or authority and with the leave of the court.
- (8) Subject to clause (9), for the purposes of this article, any appeal from any judgment in any criminal proceedings before any court, or any question of law reserved for the purpose of any such proceedings to any other court, shall be deemed to be part of those proceedings.
- (9) The power conferred on the Attorney-General by clause (4)(c) shall not be exercised in relation to any appeal by a person convicted in any criminal proceedings or to any question of law reserved at the instance of such a person.

- (10) In the exercise of the powers vested in the Attorney-General by clause (4), the Attorney-General shall not be subject to the direction or control of any other person or authority.
- (11) An Act may make provision with respect to the institution of proceedings by a person or authority, other than the Attorney-General, before a military court or a tribunal established by or under the Act for the trial of military offences committed by persons subject to military law, and unless the Act otherwise provides, the power under clause (4) shall not be exercisable by the Attorney-General in relation to any such person in respect of any such offence.
- (12) The salary, allowances, pension or gratuity payable to the Attorney-General shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.
- (13) Subject to article 165, the term and conditions on which a person has been appointed to the office of Attorney-General shall not be altered to the disadvantage of the person after the appointment.

Chapter VI Legislature

Part I – National Assembly

77. National Assembly

There shall be a National Assembly of Seychelles.

78. Composition of National Assembly

The National Assembly shall consist of—

- (a) such number of members directly elected in accordance with—
 - (i) this Constitution; and
 - (ii) subject to this Constitution, and Act, as is equal to the number of electoral areas;
- (b) not more than 10 members elected on the basis of the scheme of proportional representation specified in Schedule 4.

Article 78(b) repealed and substituted by section 3(i) of Act [14 of 1996 w.e.f. 21 February 1998]

79. General election and by-election

- (1) A general election shall be held during the period starting at the beginning of the fifty-seventh month and ending at the end of the fifty-ninth month of a session of the National Assembly.
- (2) Where a person ceases to be a directly elected member of the National Assembly under article 81, a by-election shall be held within 30 days of the person ceasing to be a member of the Assembly unless the cessation occurred within three months before the beginning of the period within which a general election is required to be held under clause (1).
- (3) Subject to clause (4), a directly elected member of the National Assembly shall be directly elected by secret ballot by persons entitled to vote under this Constitution.
- (4) Where immediately before the day appointed for the holding of an election there is only one candidate for election for an electoral area and that candidate has, since the day immediately following the day of the closing of the nominations for that area, been the sole candidate for the area, no ballot shall be held and—
 - (a) all the persons who were entitled to vote at the election in the electoral area shall be deemed to have cast their votes in favour of the candidate; and

- (b) the Electoral Commission shall declare the candidate to be the directly elected member for the electoral area.

[Article 79(4)(b) amended by section 2(b)(i) of Act 7 of 2011 w.e.f. 12 July 2011]

- (5) Where on the day immediately following the day of closing of nominations for an electoral area more than one candidate stand nominated for that area and on the day immediately before the day of election only one candidate stands nominated by reason of the withdrawal of nomination of other candidates or no candidate stands nominated by reason of the withdrawal of nomination of all the candidates the election shall be postponed and a further period of not less than seven days shall be allowed for nomination of other candidates for that area.
- (6) Where on the day immediately following the day of closing of nominations for an electoral area one or more candidates stand nominated for that area and one or more of them die before the day of election, the election shall be postponed and a further period of not less than seven days from the date of death of the candidate shall be allowed for nomination of other candidates for that area.
- (7) The election postponed pursuant to clause (5) or (6) shall be held on such date as the Electoral Commission may decide but, in any case, not later than thirty days of the occurrence of the event specified in those clauses which occurred last and the candidates nominated pursuant to those clauses shall, notwithstanding their withdrawal, be deemed to be the candidates for that election.

[Article 79(7) amended by section 2(b)(ii) of Act 7 of 2011 w.e.f. 12 July 2011]

- (8) A law may provide for any matter, not otherwise provided for in this Constitution, which is necessary or required to ensure a true, fair and effective election of members of the National Assembly.

80. Qualification for membership to the National Assembly

A person is qualified to be elected as a member of the National Assembly if—

- (a) the person is qualified to vote at a Presidential or National Assembly election under this Constitution; and
- (b) the person does not hold or act in any office the functions of which involve—
 - (i) any responsibility for, or in connection with, the conduct of the National Assembly election for which the person wishes to stand; or
 - (ii) any responsibility for the compilation or revision of an electoral register for that National Assembly election.

81. Vacation of seats

- (1) A person ceases to be a member of the National Assembly and the seat occupied by that person in the Assembly shall become vacant—
 - (a) on the dissolution of the Assembly;
 - (b) if the person by notice in writing to the Speaker resigns;
 - (c) if the person ceases to be a citizen of Seychelles;
 - (d) if the person is absent without the permission, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, in writing of the Speaker—
 - (i) from Seychelles for a continuous period in excess of thirty days; or
 - (ii) during a session of the Assembly, for a continuous period in excess of ninety days during which time the Assembly has been summoned to meet and continues to meet;

- (e) if any circumstances arise which, if the person were not a member, would, pursuant to article 80, cause that person to be disqualified for election as a member;
 - (f) subject to clause (2), if the person becomes party to a contract with the Government for or on account of any public service or if any firm in which the person is a partner or any company of which the person is a director or manager or in which the person has a controlling interest becomes a party to any such contract or if the person becomes a partner in a firm or a director or manager or the holder of a controlling interest in a company which is a party to such contract;
 - (g) if the person is elected President or becomes the Vice-President or is appointed a Minister;
[Article 81(1)(g) repealed and substituted by section 3(j)(i)(A) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]
 - (h) if, in the case of a proportionately elected member—
 - (i) the political party which nominated the person as a member nominates another person as member in place of the first-mentioned person and notifies the Speaker in writing of the new nomination;
 - (ii) the person ceases to be a member of the political party of which that person was a member at the time of the election; or
 - (iii) the political party which nominated the person as a member is dissolved or otherwise ceases to exist;
[Article 81(1)(h) repealed and substituted by section 3(j)(i)(B) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]
 - (i) if, in the case of a directly elected member who was nominated for election by a political party—
 - (i) the person notifies the Speaker in writing that the person has ceased to be a member of that political party; or
 - (ii) the political party which nominated the person for election notifies the Speaker in writing that the person has ceased to be a member of the political party and the Electoral Commission confirms in writing to the Speaker that the Commission has received a written petition requesting the holding of fresh election for the purpose of electing a new member to represent the electoral area which the member represents signed or marked to the satisfaction of the Commission by at least one third of the number of registered voters who are entitled to vote in the electoral area;
[Article 81(1)(i) repealed and substituted by section 3(j)(i)(C) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996; Article 81(1)(i)(ii) amended by section 2(c)(i) of Act 7 of 2011 w.e.f. 12 July 2011]
 - (j) if, in the case of a person who was directly elected as an independent member, the person notifies the Speaker in writing that he is a member of a political party; or
 - (k) on the death of the person.
- (2) Where clause (1)(f) applies, if in the circumstances it appears to the National Assembly to be just to do so, the Assembly may except the member from vacating the seat, if the member, before becoming a party to the contract or before or as soon as is practicable after becoming interested in the contract as provided in clause (1)(f), has disclosed in writing to the Speaker the nature of the contract and the interest, or the interest in the firm or company referred to in clause (1)(f), of the member.
- (2A) [Article 81(2A) repealed by section 3(j)(ii) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]
- (3) A political party of which a proportionately elected member was a member at the time of election shall notify the Speaker in writing on the person ceasing to be a member of the party.

- (4) Subject to this article and article 82, where a person who is a proportionately elected member of the National Assembly ceases to be so, the political party of which the person was a member of the time of election and which nominated the person as a member may, by notice in writing to the Speaker, replace the person who has ceased to be a member by another person including the person who has immediately before ceased to be a member.
- (5) Where the seat of a directly elected member of the National Assembly becomes vacant under this article, the Speaker shall, as soon as is practicable within seven days after the vacancy occurs, notify the Electoral Commission of this fact.

[Article 81(5) amended by section 2(c)(ii) of Act 7 of 2011 w.e.f. 12 July 2011]

- (6) A certificate under the hand of the Speaker certifying that a person has ceased to be a member of the National Assembly shall be conclusive evidence of this fact and of the fact that the seat held by that person is vacant unless—
 - (a) the person makes an application under article 82 to the Constitutional Court within thirty days of the date of the certificate; and
 - (b) the Constitutional Court determines that the person is still a member of the National Assembly and that person still occupies that seat.
- (7) Until the final determination of an application referred to in clause (6)(a) the person who made the application shall continue to be a member of the National Assembly in respect of the seat for which the person was elected.

82. Determination of question as to membership

- (1) The Constitutional Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine whether—
 - (a) a person has been validly elected as a member of the National Assembly; or
 - (b) the seat of a member of a National Assembly has become vacant.
- (2) An application under clause (1)(a) may, in the case of—
 - (a) a directly elected member, be made by any person entitled to vote at an election in the electoral area for which the member was returned, any person who was a candidate at the election in the electoral area or the Attorney-General; or
 - (b) a proportionately elected member, be made by any member or the Attorney-General.
- (3) An application under clause (1)(b) may, in the case of—
 - (a) a directly elected member, be made by any member, any person entitled to vote at an election in the electoral area for which the member was returned or the Attorney-General;
 - (b) a proportionately elected member, be made by any member, or the political party of which the proportionately elected member was a member at the time of election and which nominated the person as a member or the Attorney-General.
- (4) Where a person, other than the Attorney-General, makes an application under this article, the Attorney-General may intervene and may appear or be represented in the proceedings.
- (5) An Act may provide for—
 - (a) the circumstances and manner in which and the imposition of conditions upon which an application may be made to the Constitutional Court for the determination of a question under clause (1); and
 - (b) the powers, practice and procedure of the Constitutional Court in relation to the application.

- (6) A proportionately elected member who ceases to be a member of the National Assembly by virtue of Article 81(1)(h)(i), shall not have the right to make an application under clause 1(b).

[Article 82(6) inserted by section 2(d) of Act 5 of 2017 w.e.f. 19 April 2017]

83. Speaker and Deputy Speaker

- (1) There shall be a Speaker and a Deputy Speaker of the National Assembly, each of whom shall be elected by the National Assembly, in accordance with the Standing Orders, or, in the absence of Standing Orders, in accordance with the procedures approved by the Assembly, from among the members of the Assembly.
- (2) The National Assembly shall not transact any business, other than the election of the Speaker, at any time when the office of Speaker is vacant.
- (3) A person holding the office of Speaker or Deputy Speaker shall vacate that office—
- when the National Assembly first meets after the holding of a general election;
 - where the person ceases to be a member of the National Assembly;
 - where the National Assembly passes a resolution supported by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of members of the Assembly requiring the person to vacate the office of Speaker or Deputy Speaker, as the case may be.
- (4) A person holding the office of Speaker or Deputy Speaker may, by notice in writing addressed to the National Assembly, resign from office and the office shall become vacant when the Clerk to the Assembly receives the notice.
- (5) Where the office of Speaker or Deputy Speaker becomes vacant, the National Assembly shall, unless it is sooner dissolved, elect another member of the Assembly to fill the vacancy at its next sitting after the occurrence of the vacancy or as soon as is practicable thereafter.
- (6) An Act may provide for the salary, allowances, gratuity and pension of the Speaker and Deputy Speaker.
- [Article 83(6) amended by section 2(e)(i) of Act 5 of 2017 w.e.f. 19 April 2017]*
- (7) The salary, allowances, gratuity or pension payable to the Speaker and Deputy Speaker shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.
- [Article 83(7) amended by section 2(e)(ii) of Act 5 of 2017 w.e.f. 19 April 2017]*
- (8) The Speaker and Deputy Speaker shall, before assuming the functions of their office, take and subscribe the oath of allegiance and such other oath as may be prescribed by law.

84. Leader of the Opposition

- (1) There shall be a Leader of the Opposition who shall be elected by the National Assembly from among its members in accordance with this article and the Standing Orders.
- (2) A person is not eligible to be elected to the office of Leader of the Opposition if the person is a member of the political party which nominated the incumbent President for election, and only members of the National Assembly who are not members of that party may vote in the election.
- (3) A person elected to the office of Leader of the Opposition shall vacate the office—
- if the person ceases to be a member of the National Assembly;
 - if the person is elected to the office of Speaker or Deputy Speaker;
 - if the person resigns by notice in writing addressed to the Speaker; or

- (d) where the members of the National Assembly entitled to vote at an election to the office pass a resolution requiring the person to vacate the office.
- (4) An Act may provide for the salary, allowances, gratuity and pension of the Leader of the Opposition.
[Article 84(4) amended by section 2(f)(i) of Act 5 of 2017 w.e.f. 19 April 2017]
- (5) The salary, allowances, gratuity or pension payable to the Leader of the Opposition shall be not less than those payable to a Minister and shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.
[Article 84(5) amended by section 2(f)(ii) of Act 5 of 2017 w.e.f. 19 April 2017]
- (6) Subject to article 105(3), where a person is elected Leader of the Opposition and in addition to this article is entitled to receive under any other provision of the Constitution a salary, pension, gratuity or allowance, the person shall not, while holding the office of Leader of Opposition, be concurrently entitled to receive the salary, pension, gratuity or allowance under this article and under any other provision of the Constitution but may opt to receive the salary, pension, gratuity or allowance under either this article or any other provision of the Constitution.

84A.

- (1) There shall be a Leader of Government Business who shall be elected by the National Assembly from among its members in accordance with this article and the Standing Orders.
- (2) A person is eligible to be elected to the Office of Leader of Government Business if the person is a member of the political party which nominated the incumbent President for election, and only members of the National Assembly who are members of that party may vote in the election.
- (3) A person elected to the office of Leader of Government Business shall vacate the office—
- (a) if the person ceases to be a member of the National Assembly;
 - (b) if the person is elected to the office of Speaker or Deputy Speaker;
 - (c) if the person resigns by notice in writing addressed to the Speaker; or
 - (d) where the members of the National Assembly entitled to vote at an election to the office pass a resolution requiring the person to vacate the office.
- (4) An Act may provide for the salary, allowances, gratuity and pension of the Leader of Government Business.
- (5) The salary, allowances, gratuity or pension payable to the Leader of Government Business shall not be less than those payable to a Minister and shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.
- (6) Subject to Article 105(3), where a person is elected Leader of Government Business and in addition to this article is entitled to receive under any other provision of the Constitution a salary, allowance, gratuity or pension, the person shall not, while holding the office of Leader of Government Business be concurrently entitled to receive the salary, allowance, gratuity or pension under this article or any other provision of the Constitution but may opt to receive the salary, allowance, gratuity or pension under either this article or any other provision of the Constitution.

[Article 84A inserted by section 2(g) of Act 5 of 2017 w.e.f. 19 April 2017]

Part II – Legislative power and its exercise

85. Vesting of legislative power

The legislative power of Seychelles is vested in the National Assembly and shall be exercised subject to and in accordance with this Constitution.

86. Exercise of legislative power

- (1) The legislative power vested in the National Assembly shall be exercised by Bills passed by the Assembly and assented to or deemed to have been assented to by the President.
- (1)(A) Unless it is otherwise provided in this Constitution, a Bill is passed by the Assembly if it is supported at all the stages at which it is as a whole put to the vote of the Assembly by a majority of the members present and voting.
- (1)(B) [Article 86(1)(B) repealed by section 3(c) of Act 7 of 2000 w.e.f. 7 June 2000]
- (1)(C) [Article 86(1)(C) repealed by section 3(k) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]
- (2) Subject to article 87, where a Bill is presented to the President for assent, the President shall, within fourteen days of the presentation of the Bill, assent, or, in accordance with this Part, withhold assent, to the Bill.
- (3) The President shall, as soon as practicable, cause a Bill which has been passed and assented or deemed to have been assented to in accordance with this Constitution to be published in the Gazette whereupon it shall become law.
- (4) A Bill passed by the National Assembly and assented to or deemed to have been assented to by the President shall be styled an "Act" and the words of enactment shall be "Enacted by the President and the National Assembly".

87. Referral of Bills to Constitutional Court by President

- (1) Where the President is of the opinion that a Bill presented for assent infringes or may infringe this Constitution, the President shall not assent to the Bill and, as soon as is practicable within fourteen days of the presentation of the Bill—
 - (a) advise the Speaker accordingly; and
 - (b) refer the Bill to the Constitutional Court for a decision in this respect.
- (2) Where the President refers a Bill to the Constitutional Court under clause (1), the President shall not, until the Court has made its decision on the Bill, be treated, for the purposes of article 88, as having withheld assent to the Bill.
- (3) Where a Bill has been referred to the Constitutional Court under clause (1), the President shall not assent to it and the National Assembly shall not proceed under article 88(2) until the Court has pronounced its decision thereon.
- (4) Where the Constitutional Court decides that a Bill referred to it under clause (1) does not infringe this Constitution, the Court shall forthwith inform the President and the Speaker in writing accordingly and the period under article 86(2) within which the President is required to assent to a Bill shall start to run from the date of the decision of the Court.
- (5) Where the Constitutional Court decides that a Bill referred to it under clause (1) infringes this Constitution, the Court shall forthwith inform the President and the Speaker in writing accordingly and the President shall return the Bill to the Speaker.

88. Withholding of assent by President

- (1) Where the President withholds, within the period provided in article 86(2), assent to a Bill, not being a Bill referred to in article 87(5), the President shall, in the case of a refusal, forthwith or, in any event, forthwith after the period of fourteen days referred to in article 86(2)—
 - (a) return the Bill to the Speaker; and
 - (b) inform the Speaker in writing of the reasons why the Bill has not been assented to.

- (2) Where the President has returned the Bill to the Speaker under clause (1)(a), the National Assembly may, at any time after a period of three months from the date by which the President should have assented to the Bill under article 86(2), by a notice approved by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of members of the Assembly resolve that the Bill should again be presented for the President's assent.
- (3) Where a Bill is presented for the President's assent under clause (2), notwithstanding that the President withholds assent to the Bill, the President shall be deemed to have assented to the Bill at the expiration of the period of fourteen days referred to in article 86(2).

89. Subsidiary legislation

Articles 85 and 86 shall not operate to prevent an Act from conferring on a person or authority power to make subsidiary legislation.

90. Restriction on certain measures

Except on the recommendation of the President, signified by the Minister for the time being responsible for finance, the National Assembly shall not—

- (a) proceed on a Bill, including an amendment to a Bill, which, in the opinion of the person presiding or the Attorney-General provides—
 - (i) for the imposition of taxation or the alteration of taxation otherwise than by reduction;
 - (ii) for the imposition of any charge on the Consolidated Fund or any other public fund of Seychelles or the alteration of any such charge otherwise than by reduction;
 - (iii) for the payment, issue or withdrawal from the Consolidated Fund or any other fund of the Government of Seychelles of any moneys not charged thereon or any increase in the amount of such payment, issue or withdrawal; or
 - (iv) for the composition or remission of any debt due to the Government of Seychelles; or
- (b) proceed upon any motion, including an amendment to a motion, the effect of which in the opinion of the person presiding or the Attorney-General is that provision would be made for any matter in paragraph (a)(i) to (iv); or
- (c) receive any petition, that, in the opinion of the person presiding, requests that that provision be made for any matter in paragraph (a)(i) to (iv).

Part III – Alteration of the Constitution

91. Alteration of the Constitution

- (1) The National Assembly shall not proceed on a Bill to alter Chapter I, Chapter III, this article, article 110 or article 111 unless—
 - (a) the proposed alteration contained in the Bill has been approved on a referendum by not less than sixty percent of the votes cast in the referendum; and
 - (b) the Speaker signifies that such approval has been so given.
- (2) A Bill to alter this Constitution shall, in the long title state that it is a Bill to alter the Constitution, and shall not be passed by the National Assembly unless it is supported by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of members of the Assembly at any stage at which, pursuant to the Standing Orders, the Bill as a whole is put to the vote in the Assembly.

- (3) In this article—
- (a) a reference to this Constitution includes a reference to a law that amends or replaces any provision of this Constitution; and
 - (b) a reference to the alteration of this Constitution includes a reference to the amendment, modification or re-enactment, with or without amendment or modification, of any provision of this Constitution, the suspension or repeal of any such provision and the making of different provision in lieu of such provisions, and the addition of a new provision to this Constitution.

Part IV – Procedures in the National Assembly

92. President may address National Assembly

- (1) The President may, at any time, attend and address the National Assembly.
- (2) The President may send a message to the National Assembly and the message shall be read, at the first convenient sitting of the Assembly after it is received by the Speaker, by the Vice-President or the designated Minister.

[Article 92(2) amended by section 3(l) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

93. Attendance of Ministers at meetings of the National Assembly

- (1) The Vice-President or a Minister may attend meetings of the National Assembly—

[Article 93(1) amended by section 3(m)(i)(A) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

- (a) for the purpose of presenting a Bill and in connection with proceedings in the Assembly relating to the passing of a Bill.
- (b) for the purpose of dealing with any matters arising in the Assembly, or explaining to the Assembly any matter, which falls within the Vice-President's or Minister's responsibility, or

[Article 93(1)(b) amended by section 3(m)(i)(B) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

- (c) for the purpose of answering a written question from a member.
- (2) The Vice-President, a Minister or, where a matter falls within the responsibility of the President, the Vice-President or a Minister designated by the President shall attend a meeting of the National Assembly when it is necessary for a purpose referred to in clause (1)(b) or (c).

[Article 93(2) repealed and substituted by section 3(m)(ii) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

94. Right to introduce Bills

- (1) The right to introduce a Bill in the National Assembly may be exercised by the Vice-President or a Minister or, subject to clause (2), a member.

[Article 94(1) amended by section 3(n) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

- (2) A member may not, pursuant to clause (1), introduce a Bill which provides for any of the matters specified in article 90.
- (3) The Speaker shall, after consultation with the President and the Leader of the Opposition, determine the order of priority for the presentation of bills to the National Assembly.

95. Quorum of the National Assembly

- (1) Where at a meeting of the National Assembly a quorum is not present and a member who is present objects on that account to the transaction of business and after such interval as may be prescribed in the Standing Orders, the person presiding at the sitting ascertains that a quorum is still not present, the person presiding shall adjourn the meeting of the Assembly.
- (2) For the purpose of this article, a quorum shall consist of one half of the number of members at the time.

96. Voting

- (1) Subject to this Constitution, questions before a meeting of the National Assembly shall be decided in accordance with the majority of members present and voting.
- (2) The person presiding at a meeting of the National Assembly shall not vote on any question to be decided by the Assembly but, in the event of an equality of votes on any question, shall have a casting vote.

97. Meeting of the Assembly open to the public

Subject to the Standing Orders meetings of the National Assembly shall be open to the public and may be broadcast.

98. President of meetings of the National Assembly

- (1) Subject to clause (2), the Speaker or, in the absence of the Speaker, the Deputy Speaker or, in their absence, a member elected by the National Assembly, shall preside over the deliberations of the Assembly.
- (2) The first meeting of a session of the Assembly shall, until the Speaker is elected, be presided over by the person who was the Speaker or, in his absence, the Deputy Speaker immediately before that meeting.

99. Oath to be taken by members

A member shall not take part in the proceedings of the National Assembly, other than the proceedings for the purposes of this article, until the member has taken and subscribed before the Assembly the oath of allegiance.

100. Validity of proceedings

The National Assembly may act, notwithstanding any vacancy in its membership, including any vacancy not filled when the Assembly first meets after an election, and the presence or participation of a person not entitled to be present at, or to participate in, the proceedings of the Assembly shall not invalidate the proceedings.

101. Standing Orders

Subject to this Constitution, the National Assembly may make Standing Orders for the regulation and orderly conduct of its proceedings and the discharge of business at sittings of the Assembly and for related purposes.

102. Privileges and immunities

- (1) There shall be freedom of speech and debate in the National Assembly and a member shall not be subject to the jurisdiction of any court or to any proceedings whatsoever, other than in proceedings in the Assembly, when exercising those freedoms or performing the functions of a member in the Assembly.

[Article 118 amended by section 2(i) of Act 7 of 2011 w.e.f. 12 July 2011]

Chapter VIII Judiciary

Part I – General

119. Judicial power of Seychelles

- (1) The judicial power of Seychelles shall be vested in the Judiciary which shall consist of—
 - (a) the Court of Appeal of Seychelles;
 - (b) the Supreme Court of Seychelles; and
 - (c) such other subordinate courts or tribunals established pursuant to article 137.
- (2) The Judiciary shall be independent and be subject only to this Constitution and the other laws of Seychelles.
- (3) Subject to this Constitution, Justice of Appeal, Judges and Masters of the Supreme Court shall not be liable to any proceedings or suit for anything done or omitted to be done by them in the performance of their functions.
- (4) An Act establishing a subordinate court or tribunal referred to in clause (1)(c) may grant to the person exercising judicial functions in the court or tribunal immunity from proceedings or suit to the extent provided in clause (3).

Part II – Court of Appeal

120. Establishment and jurisdiction of Court of Appeal

- (1) There shall be a Court of Appeal which shall, subject to this Constitution, have jurisdiction to hear and determine appeals from a judgement, direction, decision, declaration, decree, writ or order of the Supreme Court and such other appellate jurisdiction as may be conferred upon the Court of Appeal by this Constitution and by or under an Act.
- (2) Except as this Constitution or an Act otherwise provides, there shall be a right of appeal to the Court of Appeal from a judgment, direction, decision, declaration, decree, writ or order of the Supreme Court.
- (3) The Court of Appeal shall, when exercising its appellate jurisdiction, have all the authority, jurisdiction and power of the court from which the appeal is brought and such other authority, jurisdiction and power as may be conferred upon it by or under an Act.
- (4) Subject to this Constitution and any other law, the authority, jurisdiction and power of the Court of Appeal may be exercised as provided in the Rules of the Court of Appeal.
- (5) Proceedings in respect of a matter relating to the application, contravention, enforcement or interpretation of this Constitution shall take precedence over other matters before the Court of Appeal.
- (6) Where in respect of any matter before it, the Court of Appeal finds that any law or provision of any law contravenes this Constitution, the Justice of Appeal presiding at the sitting of the Court shall send a copy of the finding to the President and the Speaker.
- (7) The Court of Appeal shall sit, as occasion requires, to deal with matters before it as expeditiously as is practicable.

121. Composition of Court of Appeal

The Court of Appeal shall consist of—

- (a) a President of the Court of Appeal and two or more other Justices of Appeal; and
- (b) the Judges who shall be ex-officio members of the Court.

122. Qualification of Justices of Appeal

A person is qualified for appointment as, or to discharge the functions of, the President of the Court of Appeal or a Justice of Appeal if, in the opinion of the Constitutional Appointments Authority, the person is suitably qualified in law and can effectively, competently and impartially discharge the functions of the office of Justice of Appeal under this Constitution.

123. Appointment of Justices of Appeal

The President shall, by instrument under the Public Seal, appoint the President of the Court of Appeal and other Justices of Appeal from candidates proposed by the Constitutional Appointments Authority.

124. Acting appointment of Justices of Appeal

- (1) Where the office of President of the Court of Appeal is vacant or the President of the Court of Appeal is for any reason unable to perform the functions of the office of President of the Court of Appeal—
 - (a) until a person has been appointed to and has assumed the functions of that office; or

- (b) until the person holding the office of President of the Court of Appeal has resumed the functions of that office, as the case may be, the functions of the office of President of the Court of Appeal shall be performed by a Justice of Appeal appointed for the purpose by the President from Justices of Appeal proposed by the Constitutional Appointments Authority.

(2) Where—

- (a) the office of a Justice of Appeal is vacant;
- (b) a Justice of Appeal is for any reason unable to perform the functions of that office;
- (c) a Justice of Appeal is performing the functions of the President of the Court of Appeal under clause (1).

the President may appoint a person from candidates proposed by the Constitutional Appointments Authority to act as Justice of Appeal—

- (d) until a person has been appointed to and has assumed the functions of the office of Justice of Appeal;
- (e) until the person holding the office of Justice of Appeal has resumed the functions of that office; or
- (f) until the Justice of Appeal referred to in paragraph (c) ceases to perform the functions of the office of President of the Court of Appeal, as the case may be.

Part III – Supreme Court

125. Establishment and jurisdiction of Supreme Court

- (1) There shall be a Supreme Court which shall, in addition to the jurisdiction and powers conferred by this Constitution, have—
 - (a) original jurisdiction in matters relating to the application, contravention, enforcement or interpretation of this Constitution;
 - (b) original jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters;
 - (c) supervisory jurisdiction over subordinate courts, tribunals and adjudicating authority and, in this connection, shall have power to issue injunctions, directions, orders or writs including writs or orders in the nature of habeas corpus, certiorari, mandamus, prohibition and quo warranto as may be appropriate for the purpose of enforcing or securing the enforcement of its supervisory jurisdiction; and
 - (d) such other original, appellate and other jurisdiction as may be conferred on it by or under an Act.
- (2) Proceedings in respect of matters relating to the application, contravention, enforcement or interpretation of this Constitution shall take precedence over other matters before the Supreme Court.
- (3) The Supreme Court shall consist of the Chief Justice, the Puisne Judges and, subject to clause (5), the Masters of the Supreme Court.
- (4) Subject to article 129, any other law and the Rules of the Supreme Court, a single Judge or a number of Judges sitting together may exercise the jurisdiction and powers of the Supreme Court.

- (5) A Master of the Supreme Court may exercise such limited jurisdiction and powers of the Supreme Court as may be prescribed by or under an Act or by the rules of the Supreme Court in respect of interlocutory proceedings.
- (6) The number of Puisne Judges and Masters of the Supreme Court who may be appointed shall be prescribed by an Act.
- (7) For the purposes of clause (1)(c) "adjudicating authority" includes a body or authority established by law which performs a judicial or quasi-judicial function.

126. Qualification of Judges and Masters

- (1) A person is qualified for appointment as a Judge if—
 - (a) the person has been entitled to practice before a court of unlimited original jurisdiction for not less than seven years; and
 - (b) in the opinion of the Constitutional Appointments Authority the person has shown outstanding distinction in the practice of law and can effectively, competently and impartially discharge the functions of the office of a Judge under this Constitution.
- (2) A person is qualified for appointment as a Master of the Supreme Court if—
 - (a) the person has been entitled to practise before a court of unlimited jurisdiction for not less than five years; and
 - (b) in the opinion of the Constitutional Appointments Authority the person has shown outstanding distinction in the practice of law and can effectively, competently and impartially discharge the functions of the office of a Master of the Supreme Court under this Constitution.
- (3) For the purposes of clauses (1)(b) and (2)(b), any period during which a person has functioned as a public officer holding an office for which qualification as a barrister or attorney is required may be treated as a period of practice under the clauses.

127. Appointment of Judges and Masters

The President shall, by instrument under the Public Seal, appoint the Judges and Masters of the Supreme Court from candidates proposed by the Constitutional Appointments Authority.

128. Acting appointment of Judges

- (1) Where the office of Chief Justice is vacant or the Chief Justice is for any reason unable to perform the functions of the office of Chief Justice—
 - (a) until a person has been appointed to and has assumed the functions of that office; or
 - (b) until the person holding that office has resumed the functions of that office,as the case may be, the functions of the office shall be performed by a Judge appointed by the President from Judges proposed by the Constitutional Appointments Authority.
- (2) Where—
 - (a) the office of Judge is vacant;
 - (b) a Judge is for any reason unable to perform the functions of the office of a Judge; or
 - (c) the Chief Justice advises the President that the state of business in the Supreme Court so requires,

the President may appoint a person from candidates proposed by the Constitutional Appointments Authority to act as a Judge—

- (d) until a person has been appointed and has assumed the functions of that office;
 - (e) until the person holding that office has assumed the functions of that office; or
 - (f) until the President, on the advice of the Chief Justice, revokes the appointment, as the case may be.
- (3) An appointment under clause (2)(c) may be made without reference to any numerical limit imposed under article 125(6).

Part IV – Constitutional questions

129. Supreme Court as Constitutional Court

- (1) The jurisdiction and powers of the Supreme Court in respect of matters relating to the application, contravention, enforcement or interpretation of the Constitution shall be exercised by not less than two Judges sitting together.
- (2) Where two or more Judges sit together for the purposes of clause (1), the most senior of the Judges shall preside.
- (3) Any reference to the Constitutional Court in this Constitution shall be a reference to the Court sitting under clause(1).

130. Constitutional questions before Constitutional Court

- (1) A person who alleges that any provisions of this Constitution, other than a provision of Chapter III, has been contravened and that the person's interest is being or is likely to be affected by the contravention may, subject to this article, apply to the Constitutional Court for redress.
- (2) The Constitutional Court may decline to entertain an application under clause (1) where the Court is satisfied that the applicant has obtained redress for the contravention under any law and where the applicant has obtained redress in the Constitutional Court for any matter for which an application may be made under clause (1), a court shall not entertain any application for redress for such matter except on appeal from a decision of such court.
- (3) Where the Constitutional Court on an application under clause (1) is satisfied that adequate means of redress for the contravention alleged are or have been available to the person concerned in any other court under any other law, the Court may hear the application or transfer the application to the appropriate court for grant of redress in accordance with law.
- (4) Upon hearing an application under clause (1), the Constitutional Court may—
 - (a) declare any act or omission which is the subject of the application to be a contravention of this Constitution;
 - (b) declare any law or the provision of any law which contravenes this Constitution to be void;
 - (c) grant any remedy available to the Supreme Court against any person or authority which is the subject of the application or which is a party to any proceedings before the Constitutional Court, as the Court considers appropriate.
- (5) Where the Constitutional Court makes a declaration under clause 4(b), the Court shall, subject to any decision in appeal therefrom, send a copy of the declaration to the President and the Speaker.
- (6) Where in the course of any proceedings in any court, other than the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court sitting as the Constitutional Court, or tribunal, a question arises with regard to whether there has been or is likely to be a contravention of this Constitution, other than Chapter III, the court or tribunal shall, if it is satisfied that the question is not frivolous or vexatious or has not already been the subject of a decision of the Constitutional Court or the Court of Appeal, immediately adjourn the proceedings and refer the question for determination by the Constitutional Court.

- (7) Where in an application under clause (1) or where a matter is referred to the Constitutional Court under clause (6), the person alleging the contravention or risk of contravention establishes a prima facie case, the burden of proving that there has not been a contravention or risk of contravention shall, where the allegation is against the State, be on the State.
- (8) The Court in which the question referred to in clause (6) arose shall dispose of the case in accordance with the decision of the Constitutional Court, or if that decision is the subject of an appeal, in accordance with the decision of the Court of Appeal.
- (9) Nothing in this article confers jurisdiction on the Constitutional Court to hear or determine a matter referred to it under article 51(3) or article 82(1) otherwise than upon an application made in accordance with article 51 or article 82.

Part V – Terms of appointment of Justices of Appeal and Judges

131. Tenure of office of Justices of Appeal and Judges

- (1) Subject to article 134, a person holding office of Justice of Appeal or Judge shall vacate that office—
 - (a) on death;
 - (b) if the person is removed from office under article 134;
 - (c) subject to clause (2), if the person resigns in writing addressed to the President and to the Constitutional Appointments Authority;
 - (d) in the case of a person who is a citizen of Seychelles, on attaining the age of seventy years;
 - (e) in the case of a person who is not a citizen of Seychelles, at the end of the term for which the person was appointed;
 - (f) if the office is abolished with the consent of the person.
- (2) A resignation under clause (1)(c) shall have effect on the date on which it is received by the President.
- (3) Subject to clause (4), a person who is not a citizen of Seychelles may be appointed to the office of Justice of Appeal or Judge for only one term of office of not more than seven years.
- (4) The President may, on the recommendation of the Constitutional Appointments Authority in exceptional circumstances, appoint a person who is not a citizen of Seychelles and who has already completed one term of office as a Justice of Appeal or Judge for a second term of office, whether consecutive or not, of not more than seven years.

132. Miscellaneous provisions with respect to tenure

- (1) The office of Justice of Appeal or Judge shall not, without the consent of the Justice of Appeal or Judge, be abolished during the Justice's of Appeal or Judge's continuance in office.
- (2) A person who has been appointed to the office of Justice of Appeal or Judge may continue in office notwithstanding any change, during the Justice's of Appeal or Judge's term of office, of the qualification for appointment to the office.
- (3) A Justice of Appeal or Judge or a person acting as such pursuant to article 124 or article 128, whose appointment has terminated otherwise than by reason of being removed from office under article 134, may continue to sit as a Justice of Appeal or Judge, or to act as such, for the purpose of giving judgment or otherwise in relation to any proceedings commenced before the Justice of Appeal or Judge before the termination of the appointment.

133. Salary etc. of Justices of Appeal and Judges

- (1) The salary, allowances, gratuity and pension payable to a Justice of Appeal or Judge shall be prescribed by or under an Act and shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.

- (6) The Public Service Appeal Board may regulate its own proceedings and may act notwithstanding one vacancy in its membership.

Chapter XII Finance

151. Consolidated Fund

There shall be a Consolidated Fund into which shall be paid all revenues or other moneys raised or received for the purposes or on behalf of the Republic, not being revenues or other moneys that are payable by or under an Act for some specific purpose or into some other fund established under an Act for a specific purpose.

152. Withdrawal from Consolidated Fund

- (1) No moneys shall be withdrawn from the Consolidated Fund except—
 - (a) to meet expenditure that is charged on the Fund by this Constitution or by an Act; or
 - (b) where the issue of those moneys has been authorised—
 - (i) by an Appropriation Act;
 - (ii) by a supplementary estimate approved pursuant to article 154(7) by resolution of the National Assembly passed in that behalf of; or
 - (iii) under article 155.
- (2) No moneys shall be withdrawn from any public fund, other than the Consolidated Fund, unless the issue of those moneys has been authorised by or under an Act.

153. Public debt

The public debt of Seychelles shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund and other public funds established by or under this Constitution.

154. Appropriation Act and statement of account

- (1) The Minister shall, not later than the thirtieth day after the beginning of each financial year, lay before the National Assembly the estimates of revenue and expenditure of the Government for the financial year.
- (2) The Minister shall, before presenting the estimates under clause (1), obtain the approval of the Cabinet in respect of the estimates.
- (3) The estimates referred to in clause (1) shall include—
 - (a) a statement of the public debt at the beginning of the financial year showing—
 - (i) bilateral, multilateral, institutional and commercial debts;
 - (ii) whether the debt in each case referred to in subparagraph (i) is foreign or domestic;
 - (iii) in the case of a domestic debt, the type and aggregate amount of the debt instrument issued;
 - (b) a statement of the expected debt at the end of the financial year;
 - (c) a profile of the debt repayment and servicing requirement for the next ten subsequent financial years;
 - (d) a statement of the outstanding guarantees given by the Government and the Central Bank of Seychelles;
 - (e) a statement of official reserves, clearly identifying the reserves held at the beginning of the financial year by the Central Bank, the Government and the banking sector in aggregate, the expected holdings by the Central Bank, Government and banking sector at the end of the financial year and the extent to which the official year and the extent to which the official reserves are expected to be drawn down or increased during the financial year;
 - (f) a statement of the fiscal outcome and effect showing a full abstract of the Consolidated Fund for the immediately preceding financial year.

- (4) The estimates of expenditure referred to in clause (1) shall show separately—
 - (a) the estimates of expenditure required to meet expenditures charged on the Consolidated Fund; and
 - (b) the sums required to meet other expenditures, during the financial year.
- (5) The heads of expenditures referred to in clause (4)(b) shall be included in a Bill, to be known as the Appropriation Bill, which shall be introduced in the National Assembly to provide for appropriation from the Consolidated Fund of the sums of money necessary to meet the expenditures.
- (6) Where, in respect of any financial year, it is found—
 - (a) that the amount appropriated by the Appropriation Act for any purpose is insufficient or that a need has arisen for expenditure for a purpose for which no amount has been appropriated by that Act; or
 - (b) that any moneys have been expended for any purpose in excess of the amount appropriated for that purpose by that Act or for a purpose for which no amount has been appropriated by that Act,a supplementary estimate, showing the sum of money required or spent, shall be laid before the National Assembly.
- (7) Where, in respect of any financial year, a supplementary estimate laid before the National Assembly in accordance with clause (6) has been approved by resolution by the National Assembly, a supplementary Appropriation Bill shall be introduced in the Assembly in the financial year next following the year to which the estimate relates, providing for the appropriation of the sums so approved for the purposes specified in that estimate.
- (8) The Minister shall, after approval by the Cabinet and within ninety-one days after the end of each financial year, provide to the National Assembly in respect of that year—
 - (a) full details of all accounts maintained in respect of the Consolidated Fund showing amount actually received and spent in that year;
 - (b) statements of fiscal outcome and effect showing separately actual components of fiscal outcome, position and effect, and, in the case of fiscal effect, separate disclosure shall be made of actual additional borrowings, movements in cash balances, of the Central Bank of Seychelles, and other bank and non-bank borrowings;
 - (c) a statement of actual outstanding debt at the end of the financial year showing separately bilateral, multilateral, institutional, foreign and domestic debt, type and aggregate amounts of debt instruments outstanding and in the case of new or restructured debt or debt in default, a separate disclosure giving full details thereof;
 - (d) statements of outstanding guarantees given by Government and the Central Bank of Seychelles showing separately guarantees that have been renewed, new guarantees given and guarantees that have been called up and, in the case of new guarantees given or that have been called up, details of such guarantees together with a statement of guarantees that have expired during the financial year;
 - (e) a statement of actual official reserves identifying those held by the Central Bank of Seychelles, and there shall be shown separately the extent to which those reserves are borrowed or encumbered in any way;
 - (f) as far as is practicable, a statement of assets and liabilities of the Government at the end of the financial year; and
 - (g) such other statements as the Minister may think fit.
- (9) For the purposes of this Chapter,

"financial year" means any period of twelve months beginning on 1st January in any year or any other date as may be prescribed by or under an Act;

"Minister" means the Minister responsible for finance and includes the Vice-President where the Vice-President is responsible for the Ministry or department of finance.

[Article 154(9) amended by section 3(t) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

155. Authorisation of expenditure in advance of appropriation

Where the Appropriation Act in respect of any financial year has not come into operation by the beginning of the financial year, the National Assembly by resolution may authorise the withdrawal of moneys from the Consolidated Fund for the purpose of meeting expenditure necessary to carry on the service of the Government until the expiration of four months from the beginning of the financial year or the coming into operation of that Appropriation Act, whichever is the earlier.

156. Contingencies Fund and other funds

- (1) Provision may be made in an Act for the establishment of a Contingencies Fund and for authorising the Minister, if the Minister is satisfied that there is an urgent and unforeseen need for expenditure for which no other provision exists, to make advances from that Fund to meet that need.
- (2) Where any advance is made from the Contingencies Fund, a supplementary estimate shall, as soon as is practicable, be laid before the National Assembly for the purpose of authorising the replacement of the amount so advanced.
- (3) An Act may provide for the establishment of other funds for any purpose specified in the Act.

157. Imposition of taxation

- (1) Subject to this article, no taxation shall be imposed or altered except by or under an Act.
- (2) An Act may make provision under which the President or a Minister may by order provide that on or after the publication of a Bill, being a Bill approved by the President, that it is proposed to introduce in the National Assembly providing for the imposition or alteration of taxation, such provisions of the Bill as may be specified in the order shall, until the Bill becomes law, have the force of law for such period and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by an Act.
- (3) An order made under clause (2) shall, unless sooner revoked, cease to have effect—
 - (a) if the Bill to which it relates is not passed within such period from the date of its first reading in the National Assembly as may be prescribed by an Act;
 - (b) if, after the introduction of the Bill to which it relates, the National Assembly is dissolved; or
 - (c) at the expiration of a period of four months from the date the order came into operation, or such longer period from that date as may be specified in any resolution passed by the National Assembly, after the Bill to which it relates has been introduced.

158. Auditor-General

- (1) There shall be an Auditor-General who shall be appointed by the President from candidates proposed by the Constitutional Appointments Authority.
- (2) A person shall not be appointed Auditor-General unless that person has not less than seven years experience as a qualified accountant.
- (3) The accounts of the Cabinet office, the National Assembly, all government departments and offices, all courts and those related to moneys withdrawn from the Consolidated Fund, all accounts of any statutory corporation or such other body as may be specified by or under an Act shall be audited and reported on by the Auditor-General to the National Assembly and for that purpose the Auditor-General or any person authorised or appointed in that behalf by the Auditor-General shall have access to all books, records, returns, information and other documents relating or relevant to those accounts.

- (4) The public accounts of Seychelles and of all other persons bodies referred to in clause (3) shall be kept in such form as the Auditor-General shall approve.
- (5) The Auditor-General shall, within twelve months of the end of the immediately preceding financial year, submit the record referred to in clause (3) to the National Assembly and shall in the report draw attention to irregularities in the accounts audited to any other matter which in the opinion of the Auditor-General ought to be brought to the notice of the Assembly.
- (6) The Finance and Public Accounts Committee of the National Assembly shall consider the report of the Auditor General and, for that purpose, may summon before the Committee any person who, in the opinion of the Committee, may assist the Committee in consideration of the report.
- (7) The Auditor-General shall, in the performance of the functions of the office of Auditor-General, not be subject to the direction or control of any other person or authority, but the President or the National Assembly may request the Auditor General in the public interest, to audit at any particular time, the accounts of any person or bodies referred to in clause (3).
- (8) The Auditor-General shall be appointed for a term of seven years but is eligible for reappointment at the end of a term of office.
- (9) The salary, allowances, gratuity or pension payable to the Auditor-General shall be provided for by or under an Act and shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.
- (10) The Act referred to in clause (9) may provide for other conditions of service of the Auditor-General.
- (11) Subject to article 165, the term and other conditions of service of the Auditor-General shall not be altered to the disadvantage of the Auditor-General after appointment.

Chapter XIII

The Police Force

159. Establishment of Police Force

- (1) There shall be a Police Force of Seychelles.
- (2) Subject to this Constitution and any other law, the Police Force shall be organised and administered in such manner as may be provided for by or under an Act.

160. Commissioner of Police

- (1) The Police Force shall be commanded by the Commissioner of Police who shall be appointed by the President subject to approval by the National Assembly.
- (2) Nothing in this article shall be construed as precluding the assignment to a Ministry or Department of Government of responsibility for the organisation, maintenance and administration of the Police Force, but the Commissioner of Police shall be responsible for determining the use, and controlling the operations, of the Force in accordance with law.

161. Functions of Police Force

The functions of the Police are—

- (a) to maintain law and order in and preserve the internal security of Seychelles and any other area over which the Republic has proclaimed its jurisdiction;

- (b) to prevent and detect crime in Seychelles and over any other area over which the Republic has proclaimed its jurisdiction; and

 - (d) in the case of a complaint relating to subparagraph (1)(a), the complaint has or had, by way of remedy under this Constitution or any other law, a right of appeal, objection or review on merits and the complainant has not exhausted the remedy, unless the Ombudsman believes that in the particular circumstances it is or was not reasonable to expect the complainant to exhaust or to have exhausted the remedy.
- (4) In this Schedule—
- "action" includes a failure to act, an advice or a recommendation;
- "body" means a body of persons whether corporate or incorporate;
- "investigation" means an investigation in terms of this Schedule;
- "public authority" means a Ministry, a department division or agency of the Government or a statutory corporation or a limited liability company which is directly or ultimately under the control of Government or any other body which is carrying out a governmental function or service or a person or body specified by an Act.
- (5) A limited liability company of which the Government holds not more than forty-nine per centum of its issued share capital shall not, for the purposes of subparagraph (4), be treated to be a limited liability company which is under the direct or ultimate control of the Government.

2. Excluded matters

The Ombudsman shall not investigate an action referred to in paragraph 1(1)(a) -

- (a) in respect of a subject matter which the President or Vice-President or the relevant Minister certifies may affect the relation or dealing between the Government of Seychelles and any other Government or international organisation, the security of the Republic or the investigation of crime;
[Schedule 5 paragraph 2(a) amended by section 3(x)(ii) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]
- (b) concerning the performance of a judicial function or a Justice of Appeal, Judge or person performing a judicial function;
- (c) taken with respect to orders or directions to a disciplinary force or a member of the force; or
- (d) unless the person aggrieved is resident in Seychelles or the action was taken in respect of the person aggrieved while the person was present in Seychelles or in respect of rights or obligations that arose or accrued in Seychelles.

3. Investigative power of Ombudsman

Subject to this Schedule, the Ombudsman has the same power as a Judge of the Supreme Court in respect of the attendance of a person before the Ombudsman, the examination of any person in relation to an investigation, the production of a document or record relevant to an investigation and the inspection of premises relevant to an investigation.

4. Privileged information

- (1) Subject to this paragraph, a person shall not refuse to answer any question or withhold any document, information, record or thing or refuse to make available to the Ombudsman any document, information, record or thing or refuse access to the Ombudsman to any premises relating to an investigation on the ground that the answering of the question or disclosure of the document, information, record or thing or making available of any document, information, record or thing or the granting of access to any premises would be injurious to the public interest, contrary to a law or in breach of a privilege or an obligation, whether contractual or otherwise.
- (2) Where a certificate certifying that the answering of a question, the disclosure of document, information, record or thing or the granting of access to any premises would be contrary to public interest is issued by—
 - (a) the President—
 - (i) because it might prejudice the security of the Republic or international relations between the Government of Seychelles and any other Government or international organisation; or
 - (ii) because it involves the disclosure of the proceedings of the Cabinet;
 - (b) the Attorney-General because it might prejudice the investigation or detection of crime, the Ombudsman shall not require a person to answer the question, disclose the document, information, record or thing, make available the document, information, record or thing or grant access to premises, as the case may be.

5. Investigation

- (1) The Ombudsman shall, when carrying out an investigation, act fairly and judicially and shall in particular, afford any public authority or person alleged to have taken or authorised an action or responsible for the administration of the public authority which is the subject of an investigation an opportunity to be heard.
- (2) Subject to subparagraph (1), the Ombudsman shall determine the procedures to be followed when conducting an investigation.

6. Report

- (1) Subject to subparagraph (7), where after an investigation the Ombudsman is of the opinion that -
 - (a) the action which was the subject of the investigation -
 - (i) was contrary to law;
 - (ii) was unreasonable, unjust, oppressive or discriminatory;
 - (iii) was based on a mistake of facts or a wrongful assessment of facts;
 - (iv) was based partly on a mistake of law and facts;
 - (v) was based on an improper exercise of a discretionary power or an exercise of a discretionary power based on irrelevant considerations;
 - (vi) was an improper refusal to exercise a discretionary power;
 - (vii) was based on an exercise or improper use of authority or power;
 - (viii) was in accordance with law but the law is unreasonable, unjust, oppressive or discriminatory;
 - (ix) was otherwise, in all circumstances, wrong;
 - (x) should be cancelled, varied or given further consideration; or

- (b) reasons for the action which was the subject of the investigation should have been given;
- (c) there was unreasonable delay before the decision or action which was the subject of the investigation was taken;
- (d) there was an omission which needs to be rectified;
- (e) the law or practice on which the action which is the subject of the investigation is based should be reconsidered;
- (f) the practice or pattern of conduct of a public authority or the President, Vice-President a Minister, officer or member of the public authority which is the subject of the investigation is contrary to law or unreasonable, unjust, harsh, oppressive or discriminatory; or
- (g) the allegation of fraud or corruption is well founded, the Ombudsman shall report the opinion and reasons together with any recommendation or remedy the Ombudsman considers fit to make to the President, Vice-President, Minister, officer, member or chief executive officer of the public authority, as the case may be.

[Schedule 5 paragraph 6(1) amended by section 3(x)(iii)(A) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

- (2) The Ombudsman shall, where the report is not required to be sent to the President, Vice-President or Minister, send a copy of the report to the President and where relevant to the Vice-President and any relevant Minister.

[Schedule 5 paragraph 6(2) repealed and substituted by section 3(x)(iii)(B) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

- (3) The Ombudsman may specify in the report referred to in subparagraph (1) a time limit within which it is reasonable for the report to be acted upon.
- (4) Where a report submitted under subparagraph (1) is not, in the opinion of the Ombudsman, adequately acted upon -
 - (a) within the time specified in the report; or
 - (b) if no time has been specified, within such reasonable time as the Ombudsman is of the opinion is reasonable, the Ombudsman may submit the report and recommendation together with such further observations the Ombudsman thinks fit to make to the President and the National Assembly.

- (5) The Ombudsman shall attach to every report submitted to the President, Vice-President and the National Assembly under subparagraph (4) a copy of any comments made thereon by or on behalf of the chief executive officer of the public authority concerned or the President, Vice-President, Minister, officer or member of the public authority, as the case may be.

[Schedule 5 paragraph 6(5) amended by section 3(x)(iii)(C) of Act 14 of 1996 w.e.f. 14 August 1996]

- (6) The Ombudsman shall not later than the thirty-first January in each year make a general report to the National Assembly with a copy to the President on the exercise of the functions of the Ombudsman under this Constitution during the previous year.
- (7) The Ombudsman shall, in every case where a complaint is received by the Ombudsman, inform the complainant of the result of the complaint.

7. Miscellaneous provisions relating to Ombudsman

- (1) For the purposes of the law of defamation, absolute privilege is attached to the publication of any matter by the Ombudsman or any other person acting under the authority of the Ombudsman.
- (2) The Ombudsman or any other person acting under the authority of the Ombudsman shall not be liable for anything done or omitted to be done in good faith in the performance or purported performance of the functions of the Ombudsman.
