[2] I have heard counsel in mitigation. The convict is 23 years old, he is a first offender, he is in gainful employment at the H3 Active Gym, he has pleaded guilty, shown remorse, he has saves the courts time and expenses in the trial.

[3] As briefly stated from the facts which got him involved in the matter he believe that he was doing a legitimate photographing business and leading to him by another who has already been convicted and he corporate with the police and indicated that he did not benefit at all from any of this enterprise and for these reasons the only reason he is before the court is because this enterprise consisted of illegal activities of photographing woman and girls in the case of the convict none of the persons were under the age of 18 and he generally believe that they were given the consent for these reasons.

[4] I impose a similar sentence that I did for the case of Jean Luc Moumou, Rico Payet and Christian Laporte.

[5] Count 23 I impose a sentence of one year imprisonment suspended for two years plus a fine of SCR3000.

Count 24 I impose a sentence of one year imprisonment suspended for two years plus a fine of SCR3000.

Count 45 I impose a sentence of one year imprisonment suspended for two years plus a fine of SCR3000.

Count 63 I impose a sentence of one year imprisonment suspended for two years plus a fine each of Rs3000.

The total fine will be SCR12, 000.

[6] I give the convict 6 months to pay the fine. The convict can do so by way of instalments. The only condition attached with the sentence is that he should not commit any similar offence during the period of 2 years and also by six month he must complete payment of the fine of Rs12, 000 in default he may have to serve 6 months imprisonment.

[7] The convict may appeal against the sentence within 30 days from today.

Signed, dated and delivered at Ile du Port on 16 December 2021.
