1.

These Rules may be cited as the Constitutional Court (Application, Contravention, Enforcement or Interpretation of the Constitution) Rules.

2.

- (1) These Rules provide for the practice and procedure of the Constitutional Court in respect of matters relating to the application, contravention, enforcement or interpretation of the Constitution.
- (2) Where any matter is not provided for in these Rules, the Seychelles Code of Civil Procedure shall apply to the practice and procedure of the Constitutional Court as they apply to civil proceedings before the Supreme Court.

3.

- (1) An application to the Constitutional Court in respect of matters relating to the application, contravention, enforcement or interpretation of the Constitution shall be made by petition accompanied by an affidavit of the facts in support thereof.
- (2) All persons against whom any relief is sought in a petition under subrule (1) shall be made a respondent thereto.
- (3) Except where the petition under subrule (1) is presented by the Attorney-General, the Attorney-General shall be made a respondent thereto.

4.

- (1) Where the petition under rule 3 alleges a contravention or a likely contravention of a provision of the Constitution, the petition shall be filed in the Registry of the Supreme Court#
  - (a) in a case of an alleged contravention, within 3 months of the contravention;
  - (b) in a case where the likely contravention is the result of an act or omission, within 3 months of the act or omission;
  - (c) in a case where the likely contravention arises in consequence of any law, within 3 months of the enactment of such law.

- (2) Where a petition under rule 3 relates to the application enforcement or interpretation of any provisions of the Constitution, the petition shall be filed in the Registry of the Supreme Court within 3 months of the occurrence of the event that requires such application, enforcement or interpretation.
- (3) Notwithstanding subrules (1) and (2), a petition under rule 3 may, with the leave of the Constitutional Court, be filed out of time.
- (4) The Constitutional Court may, for sufficient reason, extend the time for filing a petition under rule 3.

5.

- (1) A petition under rule 3 shall contain a concise statement of the material facts and refer to the provision of the Constitution that has been allegedly contravened or is likely to be contravened or in respect of which the application, enforcement or interpretation is sought.
- (2) Where the petitioner alleges a contravention or likely contravention of any provision of the Constitution, the petition shall contain the name and particulars of the person alleged to have contravened that provision or likely to contravene that provision and in the case of an alleged contravention also state the date and place of the alleged contravention.
- (3) The Court shall not permit an amendment of a petition which seeks to include any new matter not pleaded in the petition.
- (4) The petitioner shall file in the Registry of the Supreme Court as many copies of the petition as there are respondents.

6.

- (1) Where a petition which has been presented fails to comply to with the Rules, the Registrar of the Supreme Court shall submit the petition for an order of the Constitutional Court.
- (2) The Constitutional Court shall hear the petitioner before making an order under subrule (1).

7.

- (1) The provision of the Court Fees (Supreme Court) and Costs Act shall apply in relation to the fees and taxation of costs of a petition to the Constitutional Court as they apply to proceedings in the Supreme Court in respect of civil proceedings before the Supreme Court.
